

Ike Believes Reds Had Hand In Outbreaks

Economic Troubles
Also to Blame, He Tells Reporters

Washington — President Eisenhower said today mob violence against Vice President Nixon in South America appears to reflect a pattern of communist inspiration and exploitation.

But, he told a news conference, he believes economic troubles are partly responsible for the anti-American demonstrations in such countries as Venezuela and Peru.

Eisenhower said communist inspiration seems to be behind the demonstrations in some other parts of the world, but added that the unrest in French Algeria may be caused by something else.

Eisenhower spoke in response to a request for his assessment of the current wave of anti-American demonstrations in South America — particularly what has happened to Nixon and his party in Venezuela and Peru.

A reporter asked whether the president saw any pattern of communist inspiration or whether it also could be a case of genuine resentment against U. S. policies.

No Single Cause
Eisenhower called it a complex question. Then he went on to say that he does not believe there is any single cause of the violence in the Latin American countries.

There are, he added, economic factors in the U. S. relationships with such countries as Uruguay, Bolivia, Peru and Venezuela.

In Venezuela — where Nixon and his party were stoned and spat upon yesterday — there have been rumors, Eisenhower said, that the United States is trying to impose quotas on such oil exporting nations.

There is no truth to that, Eisenhower declared.

Then he said that U. S. economic policy is to help the poor.

Report Sen. Ives Won't Run Again

New York — Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-N.Y.) has decided against seeking reelection because of ill health, friends said today.

He has indicated he will make a formal announcement this afternoon.

Ives, in Washington, has been undergoing medical examination this week. The formal announcement was awaiting the doctor's report, but he already has told friends here that he does not feel up to making the race this fall.

"The chances of getting an okay from the doctor aren't too good," he remarked yesterday in Washington.

Ives has been suffering from high blood pressure, nosebleeds and swollen ankles.

Storekeeper Bests Gunman In Holdup

Navarino — Wilbert Conradt, 37, proprietor of the Navarino general store bested a young gunman—physically and financially—who tried to hold up his store about 10 o'clock this morning.

In a scuffle the gunman made his escape but he left his revolver and a dollar bill behind.

Conradt was alone when a man about 20, hatless, with blonde crew cut hair and wearing sunglasses, entered. He asked for 22 shells. When he learned they were out of stock, he asked for candy bars.

He then pulled a dollar and the revolver out of his pocket. Conradt grabbed the gun. In the struggle it went off, sending a slug through the back wall of the store, grazing the refrigerator in the kitchen of Conradt's living quarters.

The gunman pulled away, dropping the gun and the dollar bill and made his escape in a late model, light colored 2-tone sedan which went west on County Trunk W toward Highway 187.

Polish Reds Rebuke Tito

Blaming Russia in Part for Cold War

Warsaw — Poland's communist party waded into the Moscow-Belgrade squabble today with a 5,000-word statement rebuking the Yugoslavs for not placing prime blame for the cold war on American imperialism.

The statement, which occupied a full page in the party organ Trybuna Ludu, charged that U. S. imperialists were responsible for the world's division into blocs.

The Polish criticism came in the wake of Kremlin warnings that Yugoslavia must get into step with the rest of the communist world under Moscow orders.

The Warsaw complaint hinged mainly on the fact that the Yugoslavs in their recently adopted party program gave the Russians equal blame with the west in causing world tension.

The Yugoslav party congress at which President Tito and his aides stressed their independence of any bloc has brought denunciations from red China, Czechoslovakia and other communist nations. But the Poles softened their criticism with assurances that they had no intention of trying to influence Yugoslavia's internal policy.

Compromise Formula
Seen on Trade Bill

Washington — A possible compromise formula for limiting imports offered hope today for committee agreement on a new reciprocal trade bill.

Details of this and other parts of the measure remained to be worked out, but the compromise reportedly seeks to provide relief to U. S. industries threatened by imports without resort to specific tariff and quota restrictions.

Causes of Death
County Coroner Bernard Kemps said a basal skull fracture was the cause of death and listed a fracture of the right leg and multiple bruises and abrasions as contributing factors.

The boy was born Feb. 12, 1953, in Kaukauna. Survivors, besides the parents, are three brothers, Joseph, Thomas and John, all at home; two sisters, Mary Pat and Ellen Janet, at home; the grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCarty, Kaukauna, and a great-grandmother, Mrs. W. N. Curley, Lake Charles, La.

Funeral services will be at 9:30 Friday morning at Holy Cross Catholic church, with a burial in the parish cemetery. Friends may call at the Fargo Funeral home after 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Paratroops, Marines Ready To Help in Protecting Nixon

U. S. Marines of the First Battalion, sixth regiment, second division of the United States Atlantic fleet marine forces are briefed at Cherry Point, N. ## Ordered to Caribbean Area To Respond to Summons if Venezuela Regime Asks Aid

Washington — An emergency airlift of army and marine troops into the Caribbean area was completed today.

The troops were ordered into the area by President Eisenhower for possible use if Venezuela should ask for assistance in protecting Vice President Nixon's party on his good will tour.

The Pentagon said 36 air force planes carrying army troops and their equipment had reached Ramey Air Force base in Puerto Rico by midmorning. The army said of 101st Airborne division troops and equipment was completed with 27 C130 turboprop transports and nine propeller-driven cargo planes.

A company of marines from Camp LeJeune was flown by helicopter to the aircraft carrier Tarawa, en route to Cuba. Others left by plane for Guantanamo Bay.

President Eisenhower ordered the 1,000 troops to the Caribbean yesterday after angry, jeering street mobs in Caracas, Venezuela's capital, assaulted Nixon's automobile caravan with rocks, sticks and eggs.

In announcing the dramatic airlift of troops to the Caribbean, the defense department emphasized it was a precautionary measure taken "to narrowly escaping injury at the hands of howling, rock-throwing mobs. But he said the fight in the heavily guarded U. S. embassy and canceled public appearances.

Junta Chief Rear Adm. Wolfgang Larrazabal gave assurance there would be no repetition of the riots in which stoning youths—apparently urged on by communist agitators—injured six members of the Nixon parties and four Venezuelans greeting them as they arrived from Bogota.

Expresses Regrets
Nixon himself was unhurt but told reporters he was "covered with spit from head to foot." He added that one of the mob spat directly in Mrs. Nixon's face at the airport.

Windows in the cars were broken, showering the party with glass, and the cars were dented and covered with spit and eggs.

Larrazabal expressed deep regret over the outbreak. He said orders had gone out to take strong measures against demonstrators, but that he would never order guns turned on Venezuelans. Larrazabal's car also was stoned as he returned from a call on Nixon at the embassy.

Leaders of Venezuela's three main political parties—but not any communists—made a nationwide broadcast last night condemning the anti-Nixon riots and urging the Venezuelan people to conduct themselves with serenity and dignity.

Civic and educational leaders also joined in a radio program similarly condemning violence and appealing for order and decorum.

Embassy Guarded
Caracas dispatches last night said approximately 250 police and troops in battle dress guarded a 3-block radius around the U. S. embassy where the Nixons spent the night.

Even so, leaders of the government junta ran into mob trouble after calling on Nixon to express apologies for the earlier violence.

Salan Ordered to Take Command From Rebel Junta Led by Paratroop Officer

Paris — The French government today ordered Gen. Raoul Salan to take over command of Algeria from an insurgent junta led by a tough paratroop officer.

In its first official action since the cabinet's orders to Salan to maintain law and order in the Algerian capital of Algiers and to guarantee the protection of lives and property.

In its emergency session, the cabinet handed over full power in Algeria to Andre Mitter, the new minister for Algerian affairs. He took over from Robert Lacoste, hero of French resistance in Algeria.

The cabinet's orders to Salan were designed to bolster his apparent struggle for control with Massu and his so-called committee for public safety.

In Algiers, Massu's committee began acting more and more like a government. Its members called a news conference for later in the day.

Contradictory Orders
Massu ordered a virtual no-mob day of all European manifestations in Algiers and called for more mass demonstrations in downtown Algiers throughout the day.

Salan's committee sprang up in Bone, Philippeville and Constantine, the main cities of eastern Algeria.

But Salan issued a contrary order telling Algerians to go back to work. Massu's men were ordered to let the government order.

Salan commander of all troops in Algeria, was ordered to take full command in the North African colony from paratroop Gen. Jacques Massu. Massu demanded that President Rene Coty put wartime powers in Salan's hands.

Nixon Refuses To Cancel Visit

Stays in Embassy
And Calls Off His

BY STANFORD BRADSHAW
Caracas — Vice President Nixon today refused to cancel his Venezuelan visit after narrowly escaping injury at the hands of howling, rock-throwing mobs. But he said the fight in the heavily guarded U. S. embassy and canceled public appearances.

Committee OKs Stop-Go Lights For Two Corners

Also Wants Timing
Changed at Corner of Morrison, Wisconsin

Stop-go lights will be placed at two new intersections if the city council approves its public safety committee recommendations.

Committeemen have recommended the lights at W. Washington street and N. Division street and at N. Oneida street and Atlantic street.

The council will vote on the recommendations Wednesday night, May 21.

Aldermen Al. H. Stoenbauer and Austin N. Tucker asked for the W. Washington - N. Division lights at the last council meeting. Tucker also sought the N. Oneida-Atlantic lights.

Committeemen also will request changing of the schedule of stop-go lights at N. Morrison street and E. Wisconsin avenue.

They want the mayor and city clerk instructed to sign an agreement with state highway commissioners that provides for:

1. Operating the stop-go light from 6 to 9 o'clock in the morning, 11 o'clock in the morning to 1 o'clock in the afternoon and from 3 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The rest of the time the E. Wisconsin lights would flash yellow for caution and the N. Morrison lights would flash red for stop.

2. A parking ban within 50 feet of all crosswalks at the intersection.

3. Integration of the lights with lights at other Wisconsin avenue intersections.

Lack of money in the budget and no real conviction of pressing need caused committeemen to hold three other requests for stop-go lights, Chairman Thomas K. Schneider said.

To Represent City

The requests are for lights at E. College avenue and Drew street, W. College avenue and Mason street, and N. Superior street and W. Franklin street.

Committeemen instructed City Atty. Don L. Jury to represent the city at the state public service commission hearing in the Railway Express Agency's request to move its facilities from Appleton Junction to the former Chicago and North Western Railway passenger depot downtown. The hearing is set for 9 o'clock Friday morning at city hall.

Ald. Tucker's request for regulations to name a time and place for flying model airplanes was denied. Committeemen felt hobbies should be encouraged, not discouraged, Schneider said.

Tucker's request for a slow or caution sign on the north side of E. Pacific street at N. Superior street also was denied. Schneider said committeemen believe such signs do no real good.

Deny Stop Sign Plea
Ald. Allan Sonkowsky's request for a stop sign at E. Randall avenue and N. Ullman street also was denied. Schneider said committeemen believe it is not necessary.

Installation of walk lights at the Memorial drive-N. Richmond street-W. College avenue intersection was approved. The move in answer to Ald. Stoenbauer's plea for some way to tell pedestrians when to walk.

Purchase of an automobile for the police department's juvenile officer was approved. The city clerk if the council approves, will advertise for bids.

Committeemen also are asking for transfer of $1,735 of unused stop sign money to the police department account.

The Northside Advancement association was given permission to stage a parade on Wisconsin avenue between N. Richmond street and N. Drew street up N. Drew street to Erb park on June 28, the date of the Dairyama celebration.

Remove Street Lights
Street lights which are on private property at Western Condensing company's E. John street plant and at the dead end of E. Lawrence street were ordered removed.

A street light was ordered installed on Riverview lane, about 120 feet from the south end of the street, as requested by Ald. Harold Hannemann.

The street light north of the intersection of S. Outagamie street and W. Second street was ordered increased in candlepower from 200 to 400, as requested by Ald. Mrs. Dorothy Stillings.

Fire Chief Paul Neumann was given permission to attend a national fire chiefs' convention in Los Angeles. Chief of Police Walter J. Hendricks was given permission to attend a national police chiefs' convention in Miami and Deputy Electrical Inspector Joseph Schoenhaar was given permission to attend a special school on traffic lights at Moline, Ill.

The chiefs will attend at city expense, but the city will pay only for Schoenhaar's transportation.

Concordia Professor
Will Conduct Session

The Rev. Edward Jenne, a professor at Concordia college Milwaukee, will be speaker during the third and final session of a Christian marriage clinic. He will discuss "Adjustments in Marriage" at 8 o'clock tonight at Faith Lutheran church.

The Rev. Mr. Jenne contributes a monthly column, "Balanced Living," to a leading religious magazine.

Reach Settlement
In Non-Support Case

A case of non-support against Gordon Vollmer, 33, 318 N. Church street, Neenah, was turned over to Huber Law Officer Louis Michels, Tuesday by Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiede.

Vollmer's wife Ruth, route 1 Kaukauna, brought the charges which involve the couple's children and children of Mrs. Vollmer by a previous marriage.

Vollmer is to meet with Michels weekly and make contributions for support of his wife and children.

Pleads Innocent
On Sodomy Charge

Martin McGinn, 40, route 1 Bear Creek, pleaded innocent of sodomy at the preliminary hearing Monday at a territorial municipal court. Reading of the information was set for May 27 after the court ruled that an officer had been committed.

McGinn is in jail after failure to post $1,000 bond. An attorney for McGinn has been appointed by the court. He was arrested by sheriff's police April 22 in the town of Deer Creek.

Disorderly Conduct

Ronald Minter, 20, 514 Cline and avenue, Little Chute, was fined $10 Tuesday at municipal court for disorderly conduct.

Police arrested Minter after a police officer arrested him with a friend, charged on a traffic violation.

Ghosts Cop Triangular From Shawano and KHS

Five Firsts for Kaukauna, Jansen Leads Papermakers

Kimberly — Kaukauna copied five individual first places and took both relay events to win a triangular meet from Shawano and Kimberly Tuesday afternoon.

The Ghosts had 79½ points to 75 and five-sixths for Shawano and 56 and two-thirds for Kimberly.

Despite taking third place the Papermakers were in the spotlight largely due to the efforts of sophomore Darrell Jansen who copped three firsts and set a new school record in the high jump.

School Record

Jansen cleared the bar at 6 feet 1 inch, his best effort of his short career. Jansen set the old standard of 5 feet 11 inches several weeks ago. In addition to copping the high jump, Jansen won his specialties, the high and low hurdles. He has not lost in either of the hurdle events this season. Jansen has taken a first in the high jump in every meet out one this spring.

Kaukauna's firsts were scored by Jack Pomeroy in the 100 yard dash, Bill Campbell in the 220, Glenn Hinkens in the 440, Tom Witman in the 880 and Chuck Kemp in the discus.

Kaukauna Relay

Ghost relay teams flashed quick starts and smooth hand-offs in taking both the sprint medley and 880 yard relay.

Kimberly would have had a second in the 880 yard relay but the handoff to the third man was given outside the passing lanes and the Papermakers were disqualified.

Bill Pies copped the mile vault for Shawano's only firsts. Soffball league Monday night However the Indians placed with Nagel's bar taking a 6 to 5 second and third consistently to win over Slammrock bar in the rank high in the point totals.

Close Contests Mark Opening Of City League

Nagel's, VFW Score Wins Monday Night In Softball Loop

Kaukauna — Close games and the opening of the City Softball league Monday night. However the Indians placed with Nagel's bar taking a 6 to 5 second and third consistently to win over Slammrock bar in the rank high in the point totals.

opener and VFW bar defeating Mullen's barbers 8 to 6 in the nightcap.

A 4-run uprising by Nagel's in the top of the seventh overcame a 2-run lead of the Irish and spelled the difference in the first game. The winners opened the scoring in the top of the first on a walk and a homer by Cal Armitage.

Shamrock tied the count in the bottom of the first on an error, a sacrifice and another error by the centerfielder which permitted Phelan Fernal to circle the bases. The Irish took the lead in the sixth on a single, two errors, a sacrifice and another error which permitted two runs to cross the plate.

Nagel's scored four runs in the top of the seventh on a walk, a triple by Les Dietzen, a single by Emil Giordana, a walk and a single by Art Nagel. Two singles and a double by Dick Ristau gave the losers their final tally in the last of the seventh. Armitage with a homer and double in four trips led the winners while a single and a double by Ristau in four trips led the losers.

VFW Victory

VFW came from behind in the final inning to down Mullen's barbers after the losers had taken the lead in the sixth inning. The losers opened the scoring in the first inning on a single by Lyle Kamps and a double by Ron Miller.

The winners took the lead in the second inning with two runs on two walks, a passed ball and a double by George Randerson. VFW added two more runs in the fourth on a walk, a triple by Gene Weyenberg and a sacrifice fly. Mullen's scored two in the fifth on an error and consecutive doubles by Ron Miller and Cliff Rogers.

VFW added a run in the bottom of the fifth on a double by Marty Murphy and a single but Mullen's came back to take the lead in the sixth with three runs on an error, a double by Jim Erickson, a walk, a single, two more walks and a fielders' choice. The VFW scored the winning runs in the bottom of the seventh on a walk, three errors, a wild pitch and a double by Roger Gerrits. Ron Miller paced the losers with three hits in four trips while Joe Geurts had two hits in four trips for the winners.

United Church Groups Schedule Paper Drive

Kaukauna — The Brotherhood and Youth fellowship of Immanuel United Church of Christ will hold a paper drive beginning at 8:30 Saturday morning.

Persons having paper to donate are asked to have it tied in bundles or placed in cardboard boxes and set at the curb.

Committee Approves Purchase of Park Site

Fishing Pond May Be Constructed For Youngsters

Kaukauna — The health and recreation committee of the common council voted Monday night to recommend the council purchase eight to 10 acres of land south of Tenth street in the Third ward for future use as a park and playground area.

The area near Glenview acres and the Green Meadows plat is rapidly building up and eventually a park and play area will have to be provided for the people in this area, according to members of the committee.

The board recommended setting up a policy whereby only persons 17 years of age and older would be considered for summer employment. An appropriation of $75 was recommended for the purchase of flowers to be placed in city parks and on the boulevard on Main avenue. The purchase of playground swings for Bohm and Riverside park was approved.

Mother, Daughter Dinner Planned by Little Chute WCOF

Little Chute — A mother-daughter dinner is planned by the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters May 22 at the St. John Grade school auditorium.

Originally the WCOF planned the dinner for June but changed the date. The young girls are members of the St. Johanna No. 555 juvenile Forester court.

Card winners at the women's meeting included Mrs. Henry Van Lankvelt, Mrs. Rose Helf, Mrs. Alphonse Coenen, Mrs. Melvin Strobel, Mrs. Mary Van Dyke and Mrs. Frank Weyenberg.

Members of the social committee included Mrs. Harold Hietpas, Mrs. Peter Van Zeland, Mrs. Frank Reynebeau and Mrs. James Aerts.

Pays Court Costs for Expired License Plates

Little Chute — Matthew W. Vosters, 46, route 4, Appleton, appeared in justice court and was ordered to pay court costs after he pleaded guilty of driving a car with expired license plates. Vosters was arrested Sunday by village police.

Fall School Schedule Being Set by Students

Kimberly — Freshmen, sophomore and junior students of Kimberly High school are scheduling subjects and classes for the fall school term, according to Ray Hamann, principal.

Kaukauna Births

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Demerath, 1106½ E. Main street, Little Chute.

Twilight Loop Opening Round Set at FVGC

Kaukauna — Opening round matches in the Men's Twilight league at the Fox Valley Golf club are scheduled Thursday evening but members will have to check the bulletin board at the clubhouse to determine their opponents.

The league has just been formed and the golf club was unable to get the advance pairings off to members on time. Members had through Wednesday to register for the league and will be assigned teams by the golf committee.

All women are expected to be off the course by noon Thursday with the afternoon reserved for men. An evening meal will be served to round out the day's activities.

Five Masses Thursday At St. John Church

Little Chute — Five masses including one in the evening are planned for St. John's Catholic church on Ascension Thursday.

Masses will be said at 5 o'clock, 6:10, 7:30, 9 o'clock in the morning and at 7:30 in the evening. The high mass will be at 9 o'clock.

Confessions will be heard this evening from 7:30 to 8:30.

Chamber of Commerce to Discuss Summer Store Hours

Kaukauna — New officers of the Chamber of Commerce will assume duties at a special meeting on Thursday night to discuss summer store hours.

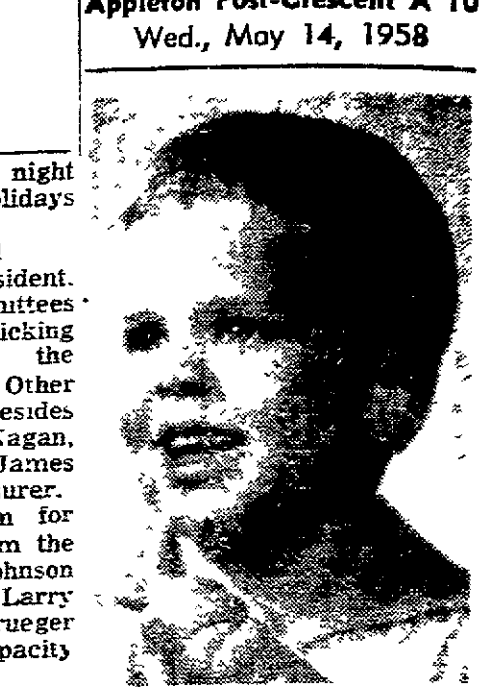

Originally it was announced stores would close Saturday afternoons during May, June, July, August and September, but several of the merchants objected to this long closing period on Saturdays and adopted their own schedule of hours. Members of the chamber called Thursday's meeting in an effort to set up a closing schedule which would be acceptable to the majority of businessmen.

The group will also discuss the possibility of closing all day Saturday after Memorial day and July 4 since both holidays fall on a Friday this year. A decision as to whether to re-

Film to be Shown at Lutheran Ladies Aid Meeting on Thursday

Kaukauna — A film entitled "For The Record" will be shown at a meeting of the Ladies Aid society of Bethany Lutheran church at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the church.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Erwin Lopus and Mrs. Stanley Mach.

Robert Charles McCarty, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCarty, 601 W. Wisconsin avenue, Kaukauna was killed about 4:15 Tuesday afternoon when he was struck by a car driven by Stanley W. Berghuis, 18, 501 S. Wilson street, Little Chute. His was the first pedestrian traffic death in the city this year, but the third road fatality.

School Board Signs Contracts For Buildings

Improvement Project
To Begin May 26, Will Be Completed by Fall

Kaukauna — The board of education authorized the school architect to enter into contracts with low bidders for proposed school improvements to Park and Nicolet schools to cost an estimated $500,000.

The common council is planning to float a bond issue to finance the program. Plans call for complete renovations to both schools and the construction of a combination gymnasium and all-purpose room at both institutions.

The contractors have informed the council they will start work on May 26 and should have the interiors of both schools completed prior to start of classes in September. Work on the additions to the two schools is also expected to be well underway prior to the start of school in fall. Hoffman Construction company received the general contract.

New Teachers
The hiring of four new teachers was approved including Miss Mary Carla Runte, Lawrence college graduate and Kaukauna resident who will teach kindergarten; Miss Ruby Hanson, Eau Claire State college graduate, to teach second grade; Miss Nancy Kort, Mt. Alverno graduate, to teach sixth grade and Miss Marlene Hoverson, Oshkosh State college graduate, to handle library at the high school.

Still needed are a kindergarten teacher, chemistry teacher, girl's physical education instructor and art instructor. The chemistry teacher is needed to replace Bernard Alberg who was given a release from his contract to take a position at Muskego.

The building and grounds committee was authorized to review applications for summer work in city schools and to select two candidates who will be hired by the board.

Mayor, Alderman Attend Meeting At Green Lake

Kaukauna — Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon and Bert Roberts, first ward alderman and chairman of the finance committee of the council, are attending the governor's conference on industrial development being held at Green Lake today and Thursday.

Theme of the 1958 session which includes talks by Gov. Vernon Thomson and industrial leaders is "How To Do It." An innovation this year will be competition among the larger and smaller cities on brochure preparations. An award will be granted the city having the brochure felt to be the most appealing for attracting new industries.

Annual Outing Set May 21 for School Patrols

Kaukauna — Plans are underway for the annual school patrol outing to be held May 21 when school cadets from all city schools will travel to Milwaukee to see a Braves baseball game and visit other points of interest.

Included will be a visit to the Washington park zoo. The children will leave by bus early in the morning and spend a full day in Milwaukee. They will stop on the way home for supper and are expected to arrive back in the city about 7 o'clock.

Members of the faculty from the two public schools and the women crossing guards will serve as chaperons for the day.

Special Evening Mass At Holy Name Church

Kimberly—There will be a special evening mass at 6 o'clock Ascension Thursday at Holy Name Catholic church.

In addition there will be five other masses at the church at 4:45, 6:10, 7:30, 9:15 and 12:15.

Mount Calvary Lutheran church will have special Ascension day services at 7:30 Thursday evening, according to the Rev. Elwood Haberman.

Village Squares Plan Dance for Thursday

Little Chute — The Village Squares will hold a square dance Thursday night at the Combined Locks pavilion. Lyle Leatherman will be the caller.

AHS Students Win Seven Top Music Ratings

Results of Meet In Madison Find Nine Second Places

Appleton High school band students took seven first places in the state music festival at Madison Saturday.

First place soloists were Tom Jacobs, cornet, and Barbara Larsen, flute. A cornet trio composed of Bob Recker, David Ridgley and Calvin Klues, won first as did a cornet duet with Tom Bauran and Barry Merkle. A drum duet with Don Grutzmacher and Dennis Fuertis and a clarinet duet with Linda Malmstrom and Judy Vanderlinden took first places. All of these groups were in class B except Jacobs who entered class A.

The woodwind choir, class A, was awarded first place. In the group are Dennis Chuchel, Shirley Bauers, Lois Salzman, Nancy Dunsirn, Patty Wink, Cecé Verhoven, Sharon Rippl, Jan Luebke, Sandy Greason, Dan McIntyre and Dave Mueller, clarinetists; Linda Malmstrom and Dave Anderson, alto clarinetists; Jeanette Danley and Andy Duszynski, bass clarinetists; and Don Kloehn, bass saxophone.

Other winners

Five soloists and four groups from the band were given second ratings. Soloists were: Chuck Riley, cornet; Judy Pauk, flute; Shirley Bauers, clarinet; and John Scribner, baritone, all class A; and Duane Call, trombone, class B. The groups were a cornet trio, class A, with Riley, Jacobs and Jim Jagfeld; a flute-clarinet duet with Judy Pauk and Mary Quella; a clarinet duet with Dennis Chuchel and Mary Quella, all class A; and a clarinet quartet, class B, with Shirley Bauers, Cecé Verhoven, Sharon Rippl and Jan Luebke.

Third place ratings were given to a clarinet quartet, class A, with Mary Quella, Chuchel, Lois Salzman and Patty Wink, and a baritone soloist, Pam Barney, class B.

The only orchestra entry was Sharon Bauerlein who played a violin solo, class A, and was given a second rating.

In entries from the vocal group, the madrigal singers, class A, won a second place rating. Those in the group are Jean Ferron, Patti Marske, Judy Buettner, Liz Wehrenberg, Phyllis Schroeder, Ed Sanders, Tom Taylor, Bob Stevenson and Ray Sanders. The only soloist from the chorus was Jean Oostertag who was awarded a third place in class B.

Mayor Will Seek Congress Post

Green Bay Mayor Otto Ruchals today announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Eighth district congressman.

Only other Democrat to announce his candidacy for the post, now held by Rep. John W. Byrnes, Republican, is Milo Singler, Shiocton dairy farmer. Singler made an unsuccessful bid for the office in 1956.

Byrnes is expected to seek reelection.

Charge Dismissed

A charge of serving beer to minors against Clyde Weyenberg, 34, route 1 Kaukauna operator of the VFW bar in Freedom, was dismissed Tuesday in municipal court. The court ruled the state did not prove Weyenberg was in the bar at the time two 17-year-olds were served.

Around Home...

County Clerk Mollie E. Pfeiffer reads her way through piles of letters, resolutions and bills every month for county supervisors. Ordinarily, she's in fine voice.

However, Tuesday she started with cough drops, tried a soft drink (which called forth boos from supervisors) and finally gave up on part of the county business.

Appleton Fourteenth Ward Supv. Philip Retson came to her rescue and read for a while. Miss Pfeiffer came back in fine voice to wind up the session.

Madisen Cites Need For Another Park

Appleton is in a fortunate position as far as parks are concerned, but needs another one on the northwest side of the city. Erik Madisen, park board member, told the Northside Kiwanis club Tuesday noon.

If the city had gone along with park board recommendations six or seven years ago it wouldn't find itself having trouble finding a location now. Madisen stated. He noted that land prices have increased greatly in the last few years.

Madisen also outlined park board operations and functions.

Probation Revoked

Pat Sullivan, 32, 131 S. Oneida street, was sent to the county jail Tuesday for 30 days after Judge Oscar Schmitt revoked his probation. Sullivan has been fined repeatedly for drunkenness and it was the same charge that led to revocation of probation. He will be allowed to work out of jail on the Huber law.

Cooler Air On the Way To Fox Cities

Summer weather prevailed in the Fox Cities and Wisconsin Tuesday overnight, but it's not expected to last. Cooler weather is on the way and will cover all of the state by tonight.

Appleton had a high of 80 Tuesday and the temperature dropped to 55 overnight. The reading at 11 o'clock this morning was 75, with the wind from the south at 12 miles an hour and the barometer at 30.38 inches.

The high in the state Tuesday ranged from 58 at Two Rivers to 85 at Grantsburg. Scattered light showers fell during the night in the extreme northwest. Partly cloudy to cloudy conditions were prevalent throughout the state this morning.

The forecast calls for a band of light showers to accompany the cooler Pacific air eastward across the state and reach the Fox Cities by tonight or Thursday. The low tonight will be from 45 to 50 in the northwest to the upper 50s in the southeast. The outlook for Friday is mostly fair and mild except somewhat cooler near Lake Michigan.

The 5-day forecast calls for temperatures to average five to 10 degrees above normal through Thursday. The normal high is 57 to 66 in the north and 65 to 70 in the south. The normal low is from 39 to 44 in the north and from 43 to 48 in the south. It will be cooler Thursday and warmer again Saturday and Sunday. Little rainfall is expected.

Practical Nurses Of Fox Valley Plan Meeting

District Gathering Set for Tuesday at Clintonville Hospital

Clintonville — Clintonville Community hospital will be host on Tuesday evening to the Fox Valley Association of Licensed Practical Nurses. The announcement was made this week by R. J. Platte, hospital administrator, and Miss Sylvia Runge, R. N., director of nurses.

It will be the district meeting and members will attend from Appleton, Neenah, Menasha, Oshkosh, Waupaca and Clintonville.

Platte said the invitation to come to Clintonville for the meeting had been extended to give recognition to his own staff of licensed practical nurses.

Licensing is contingent upon four years of on-the-job training in an accredited hospital, followed by a written examination before the Wisconsin State Board of Nurse Examiners at Madison.

Miss Runge will extend greetings after which there will be a business meeting and program. Miss Marian Zulleger, Appleton, is the program chairman. A social hour will follow the program.

Miss Beulah Downs, R.N.A., the Clintonville Community hospital's anaesthetist, will be the speaker of the evening. Her subject will deal with new developments in anaesthesia and the subsequent post-operative patient care.

Expected to attend in addition to the officers and members of standing committees are two registered nurse advisers to the group. They are Miss Bertha Staffeld, R.N., surgical supervisor at Theda Clark hospital, Neenah, and Miss Jean Bestler, R.N., also of Neenah.

Local members of the association are Mrs. Lillian Zuhse, Mrs. Aurelia Baker, Mrs. Delma Loberg, Mrs. Leona Tornow, Mrs. Mary Sievers, Mrs. Aileen Beggs and Mrs. Gladys Mahnske.

Protestants Will Hold Ascension Day Services

Many Protestant churches will hold special services Thursday evening to observe the anniversary of the ascension of Christ into heaven.

In most cases communion also will be celebrated. Scheduling services at 7:30 Thursday evening are Zion, Mount Olive, Trinity, First English, Grace, St. Matthew, St. Paul Lutheran and St. John Evangelical and Reformed churches.

Faith Lutheran church will hold services at 7 o'clock tonight.

Indian Youth Killed In Rifle Accident

Neopit, Wis. — James Perrote, 17, of the Menominee Indian reservation was shot to death Tuesday in the accidental discharge of a 30-30 rifle, held by a companion.

Sawano county officials said the shooting occurred as the boys sat next to a road near Zoar Settlement. The boy was struck in the face by the bullet.

James was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Perrote.

Schlafers-Ace Opening

Store Has New Look And New Management

Schlafers-Ace Hardware company, 115 W. College avenue, has a new organizational look to go along with remodeling work done on the building.

The firm was sold last fall by the Schlafers family of Appleton. It had been in operation since 1883 as the Schlafers Hardware and Mill Supply company.

President and principal stockholder of the new firm is John A. Donaldson, Sr., Scarsdale, N. Y., financial vice president of Bigelow, Sanford Carpet company.

Other Officials

Robert P. Gross is vice president and general manager of the company. John Donaldson, Jr., is vice president and assistant treasurer. Mrs. Mary Albrecht is secretary.

Gross was in retail hardware

Flag Day

The Outagamie county board received and filed a request from Appleton Mayor Clarence A. Mitchell Tuesday for participation in the city's Flag Day observance and parade June 14.

business in South St. Paul, Minn., before joining Schlafers-Ace. The junior Donaldson trained with an Illinois hardware firm. Both men now live in Appleton.

The building remains in the hands of the Schlafers family and is leased to the new company.

Ace Hardware is a Chicago firm which sells hardware supplies to more than 270 privately owned hardware firms, Gross states. The company reported $530 million in sales last year.

The new management has established a self-service system for customers — operating on the same principle as a supermarket. Clerks will still be available to assist customers in selecting merchandise, but payment will be made at cash registers at the front of the store.

Fifteen clerks are employed by the store. Seventeen other employees work at receiving, shipping and clerical jobs.

Schlafers-Ace will hold its grand opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Catholics Plan Holy Day Masses

Will Commemorate Anniversary of Christ's Ascension

The feast of the Ascension commemorating the elevation of Christ into heaven 40 days after Easter will be observed by all Catholic churches Thursday as a holy day of obligation.

The mass schedule in Appleton's five Catholic churches is as follows:

Sacred Heart: 5 o'clock, 6 o'clock, 7 o'clock, 8 o'clock, 9 o'clock, 12 o'clock in the morning and 5:30 in the evening.

St. Mary: 6 o'clock, 7 o'clock, 8 o'clock, 9 o'clock, 12 o'clock in the morning and 6:30 in the evening.

St. Joseph: 4:45, 5:30, 6:45, 8 o'clock, 9:15, 10:45, 12 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock in the evening.

St. Therese: 5 o'clock, 6 o'clock, 7 o'clock, 9 o'clock, 10:30 in the morning and 7 o'clock in the evening.

St. Pius X: 5:30, 6:30, 7:30 and 8:30 in the morning. All masses will be celebrated at the Valley Funeral home.

Schlafers-Ace Store Sports Bright Look

Revamped Lighting, Display Cases Give Bazaar Atmosphere

A new store front, a brighter lighting system and modern colorful display cases are some of the innovations that will greet shoppers when Schlafers-Ace Hardware company holds its grand opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 115 W. College avenue.

The old Schlafers Hardware store had two entrances at the front, one which led into its building proper and one which led into its added space in the adjacent Hycrest building.

The new 75-foot provides a single entrance, at the spot of the main entrance for the old store. Closing of the Hycrest building entrance gives the store added window display area.

Powergrooved tubes provide about 2 1/2 times the light of the old system. Store Manager Robert Gross says. The new lighting system is arranged in long rectangular-shaped patterns overhead.

Helping give more interior light is the removal of the mezzanine section which was used as sales space along the east wall.

Also helping add light is new paint. A soft, grey tint which was used throughout the store in the general redecorating. All old fixtures were discarded. Gross points out. The new display cases are of peg board and there is a variety of the warm, soft colors.

Otherwise, shoppers will note three other changes. The rear 8 o'clock of the main store area now has a wide entrance to the store area in the Hycrest building.

The stairway to the industrial sales basement at the northeast corner has been remodeled and the former office space on the half-floor between the first and second floor now contains merchandise. Offices have been moved to the second floor.

Fox Cities People Named To Church Posts

Several residents of the Fox Cities have been named to posts with the Episcopal diocese of Fond du Lac. They were elected during the 84th annual diocesan meeting in Wausau.

The Rev. Thomas K. Chaffee, pastor of St. Thomas Episcopal church, Menasha, was named a delegate to the denomination's general convention Oct. 5 to 15 in Miami, Fla. Alternates are Kenneth Pinkerton, Waupaca, and Allen Earle, Appleton.

Both Father Chaffee and Pinkerton were named to the executive board, as was the Rev. Edwin Webster, Waupaca.

In other action, delegates turned down a proposal to lower the voting age in church affairs from 21 to 18.

Charter Granted to Development Unit At New Holstein

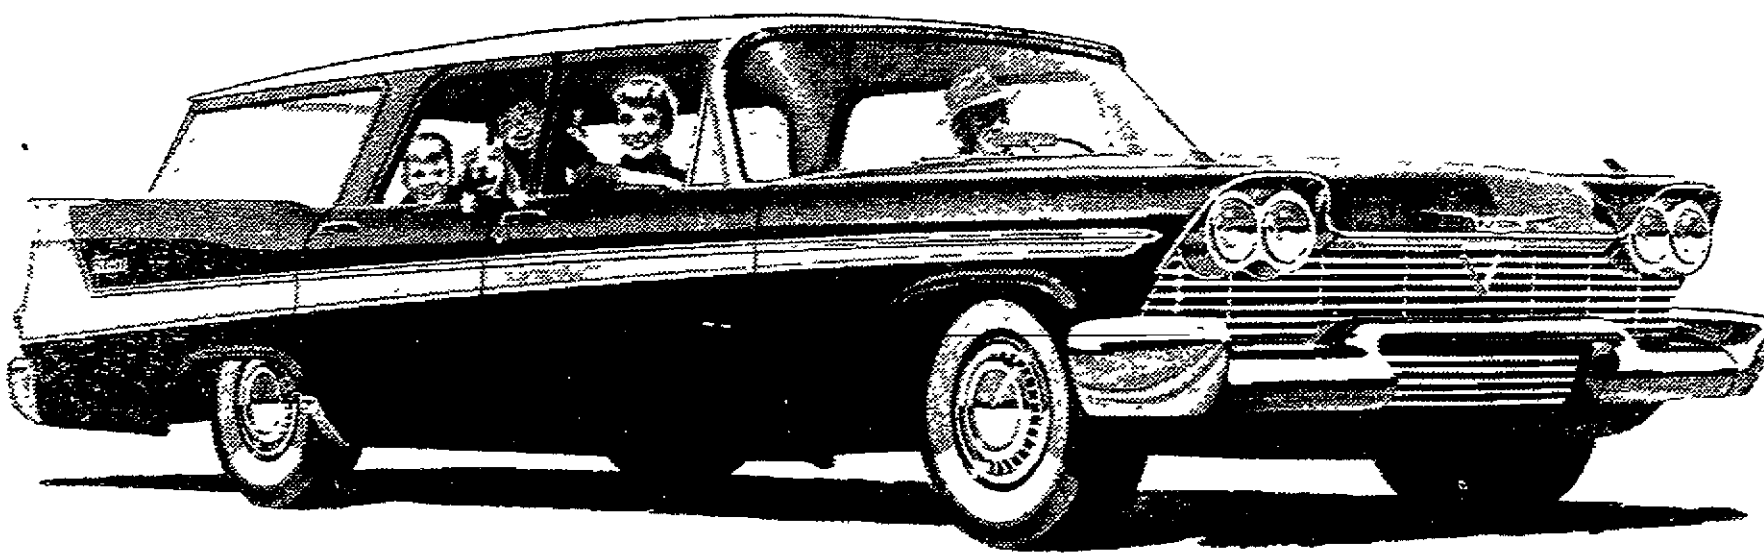

Madison — A corporate charter has been granted to the New Holstein Area Development, Inc., a civic promotion group formed by residents of the Calumet county city, the secretary of state's office announced. Signers of the articles of organization included A. W. Mulhern, Hazel S. Kelm and Florence C. Halliada.

Rip Van Winkle Couldn't Sleep with Nagging Backache

Now You can get the fast relief you need from nagging backaches, headaches and muscular aches and pains that often cause restless nights and miserable tired-out feelings. When these discomforts come on with over-exertion or stress and strain — you want relief — want it fast! Another disturbance may be mild bladder irritation following wrong food and drink — often setting up a restless uncomfortable feeling.

Doan's Pills work fast in 3 separate ways: 1. by speedy pain-relieving action to ease torment of nagging backache, headache, muscular aches and pains, 2. by soothing effect on bladder irritation, 3. by mild diuretic action tending to increase output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

Enjoy a good night's sleep and the same happy relief millions have for over 60 years. Now, large size saves money. Get Doan's Pills today!

TODAY'S BEST BUY-TOMORROW'S BEST TRADE

You get more wagon for your money today...more money for your wagon tomorrow!

Any way you look at it, you can't find a better wagon buy than Plymouth! So big—it carries more, does more, provides more room for family fun. So beautiful—just look at those long, years-ahead lines. So economical—Plymouth is priced right in the low-price "3", yet you can't buy a bigger wagon at any price. And further proof: Plymouth beat every car in the low-price class in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run; Plymouth's second consecutive victory!

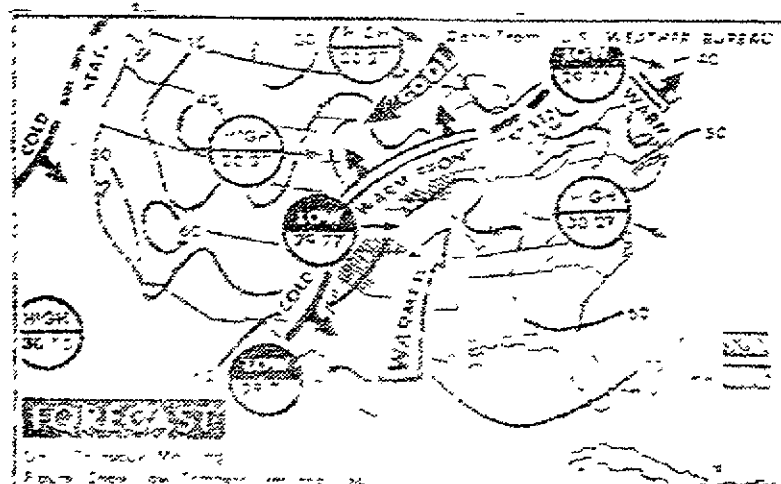

Get the biggest wagonload of value at a price far lower than you would expect. See your Plymouth dealer today.

FIVE BIG REASONS WHY YOUR NEXT WAGON SHOULD BE A PLYMOUTH

1. Biggest of the low-price "3". Big as wagons costing thousands of dollars more. You can't buy a bigger wagon at any price!
2. Holds so much more than the "other two". Over 7 cu. ft. extra passenger and cargo space. Optional "secret" luggage compartment available in 6-passenger models.
3. Rear-facing 3rd seat. Folds flush into floor. You don't store it outside when it's not in use. Easy to enter, has convenient back step.
4. Disappearing rear window. Rolls down into the one-piece tailgate. Doesn't jut out and get in the way. Only on Plymouth wagons in the low-price "3".
5. Torsion-Aire Ride at no extra cost. Only Plymouth has it in the low-price "3". Big-car luxury. No side-sway on turns...no nose-dive on stops.

They don't come any bigger than Plymouth station wagons

Complete the circle of safety...check your car...check your driving...check accidents

It Will be Generally Fair tonight throughout the nation with warmer weather expected from the central and southern plains eastward to the Appalachians and cooler weather in store for the northern plains and northern Mississippi valley. Thunderstorms are forecast for Iowa, western Texas and Oklahoma and southern Kansas. (AP Wirephoto)

Sanatorium Use For Old Persons Delayed Month

Board Wrestles With Responsibilities; Will Study Issues Involved

Outagamie county supervisors, wrestling with the problem of combining two institutions in one building, Tuesday decided to put off for another month for more study a decision on placing old persons in River-view sanatorium.

In January the board investigated the drop in patient load at Riverview due to better tuberculosis diagnosis and treatment. In March it decided to set up a section in the west wing to accommodate 18 to 20 older persons now on a waiting list for the Golden Age home in New London.

Such a resolution was presented to the board and the Riverview superintendent, Dr. John Russo, ordered placed on the staff of the Golden Age home. Under that setup, the board of trustees of the Golden Age home would be responsible for the west wing of Riverview while the sanatorium trustees would be responsible for the remainder of the building.

Several supervisors indicated they did not feel anyone could work for several boards or bosses.

Ellington Supv. Emmett Root commented he thought only older persons who can pay their

Bridge Approved, Board Asked for Five More Spans

The Outagamie county board approved one town aid bridge and got requests for five more during its Tuesday session. All the requests will be studied by the highway committee.

The board approved an $8,000 bridge, for which the county will contribute $4,000, in the town of Deer Creek. The 44-foot span will replace the existing Nordor bridge. It will be of piling abutment construction with a concrete slab.

Two bridge extensions were requested by the town of Bovina—seven feet on the south railroad crossing bridge for $1,200 and six feet for the north railroad crossing bridge for $1,300.

The town of Dale requested replacement of the Carpenter-Bennett bridge with a 40-foot span costing $1,400.

The town of Osborn requested a 4-foot extension on the Staley bridge for $900.

The town of Freedom requested replacement of the Newhouse bridge with a 40-foot span costing $800.

Fined for Drunkenness

Two men paid fines of $10 each in municipal court Tuesday on charges of drunkenness. They were Donald A. French, 63 131 S. Oneida street, and Joe L. Dineen, 48 Green Bay.

Several supervisors indicated they did not feel anyone could work for several boards or bosses. Ellington Supv. Emmett Root commented he thought only older persons who can pay their way should be admitted to the Riverview wing at least until costs of care are determined. He pointed out the state pays part cost on welfare patients but Riverview costs can only be determined by having people there.

Root also commented on the difficulties of having separate facilities, including dishes. He said he thought older persons sent to Riverview ought to be all ambulatory or bed, not a mixture.

16 Motorists Post Bonds at Police Station

2 Churches Feud Over Right to Have Two Pastors

Federalburg, Md. — Unless the bishop gives them a minister of their own, parishioners of Union Methodist church here say they will cut back appropriations for a minister's salary.

Officials of Christ Methodist church have protested plans to share a minister with Union church and already have reduced their salary appropriations. "The power of appointment is with the few . . . but the power of the purse is still in the pew," according to an old saying the local Methodists have adopted for their fight with Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam.

The bishop has announced intentions of assigning just one minister to serve both Union and Christ Methodist church, both located in Federalburg.

Officials of both churches maintain they are offering effective programs and are entitled to have their own ministers.

They contend the bishop, in effect, is forcing them into a merger which they are not ready for financially. Union church has 600 members and Christ has a membership in excess of 200.

Unusual Colonial Woman Is Subject of New Seton Work

BY JEAN WILEY THICKENS

(The Winthrop Woman," by Anya Seton Publishers, Houghton Mifflin company, $4.95)

For Elizabeth Winthrop to have endured and triumphed over all the calamities and adventures recounted so dramatically by Anya Seton in "The Winthrop Woman" indicates what a remarkable woman the heroine of the story must have been.

The author has given readers a most delightful story about this lovely, courageous and independent charmer whose tolerance and understanding were so far ahead of the age in which she lived. Miss Seton, daughter of the famous naturalist and author Ernest Thompson Seton, has done a vast amount of delving into early Colonial records never before disclosed to obtain the material for this authentic work written in the form of a novel.

Elizabeth Fones Winthrop was a child when the story opens at Groton Manor in England in the year 1617. In 1631 religious intolerance and fanaticism drive the Fones and Winthrop families—first cousins—to migrate to the Massachusetts Bay colony. Here Elizabeth's stiff-necked narrow-minded uncle, John Winthrop, is appointed by King James of England as governor. If they thought to find religious freedom under Uncle John, they are bitterly disappointed. Gov. Winthrop belonged to the school of thought that believes anything pleasant is sinful. Men and women are imprisoned and beaten for celebrating Christmas—"that Popish festival"—and any forms of recreation are frowned upon, no matter how innocent.

Arrived at the village of Boston, the Fones and Winthrop families find it to be a collection of log and mud huts. Disease and insufficient food is making life bleak and unhealthy. Religious intolerance of the broader-minded Protestants by the fanatical Puritans is as severe and unrelenting as had been the case in England.

Turbulent Life

Arrived in the new world, the life of Elizabeth Winthrop is kept in a state of turmoil. She has a succession of romances—Elizabeth is married three times and becomes twice widowed. She bears six children, lives through Indian massacres and is accused of being a witch. The latter nearly costing her her life at the hands of a howling mob of villagers.

Through it all Elizabeth Winthrop maintained her independence, her tolerance, love and loyalty to family and friends. Because of all the religious bigotry and cruelty she witnessed, she goes through years of spiritual doubt and suffers a temporary loss of faith.

But she finally finds a satisfying religious faith and peace beside her third husband, the library exchange that dramatically one whom she could truly love and respect. The sunset of her life becomes bright with happiness and satisfaction.

The book is brimful of plots, and counterplots, of hairbreadth escapes from death and misadventures of all kinds. The reader's attention is held to the last page, although the book is a long one.

Truly Anya Seton has "done herself proud" in her latest novel, "The Winthrop Woman." Cart.

Highlight of Convention

Around-the-Clock Fashions to be Featured at Elks Style Show

Models for the style show which will highlight the Saturday agenda of program activities for women attending the state convention of the Wisconsin Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks to be held this weekend in Appleton have been announced. The informal parade will be staged in conjunction with a luncheon at Butte des Morts Golf club.

Around-the-clock fashions, including clothing ranging from the newest in swimming suits to elaborate formal gowns, will be shown. Models appearing in the 2 o'clock parade are all members of the local lodge and will describe their attire as they circle the dining hall.

Smorgasbord Luncheon

Mrs. Roger Harrmann is serving as show chairman assisted by Mrs. Russell Peotter. They have announced a musical background will be used for the show, which is being put on through the cooperation of the H. C. Prange company.

Women attending the afternoon events at BDM will assemble at the Elks club at noon Saturday to board buses for the club. A smorgasbord luncheon will be served at 12:30, and the style show will begin at 2 o'clock.

Other women's activities for the weekend conclave will include a tour of Elm

Tree Bakery at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, which will be followed by a coffee hour. The Mmes. William Hart, Roy Schumacher and Marvin Olson, who will serve as hostesses, have announced buses will leave the Elks club at 2:30 for the bakery.

Dances At Night

Two dances have been scheduled during the parley, on Friday and Saturday nights, from 9 to 1 o'clock at the Appleton lodge. Cocktail hours and dinners, including the Past State Presidents banquet and awards dinner on Saturday, will precede the dance parties. Floral decorations for the dances will carry out a spring motif and are being fashioned by the women of the local Elks.

Events for the women's division of the convention are being directed by Mrs. James Schultz and Mrs. Joseph Maldari, co-chairman. Assisting them with various projects are the Mmes. Al Mulder, Joseph Moriarity, Elde Wagner, Ray Max, Milton Rueckl and Alta Reeder, all aiding with the Saturday luncheon and style show; Charles Klucker, gift bag, and Lindsey and Richard Mullen, ladies lounge assistants.

Two Catholic Girl Scout troops in Appleton, intermediate units 140 and 81 of St. Therese Catholic school, will be the first troops in the Green Bay diocese to be initiated into the Marian Award on Sunday at St. Therese Catholic church.

The award, which was set up a year ago by the Youth department of the National Catholic Welfare conference, Washington, D. C., has been designed to help in the spiritual enrichment of girls who are active members of established organizations offering programs for girls.

Depicts Virgin Mary

Members of the Girl Scouts, Camp Fire girls, Junior Catholic Daughters and the Junior Daughters of Isabella are eligible as candidates for the award, which is conferred in a religious ceremony. The award itself, is a small silver medal depicting a figure of the Virgin Mary, and is suspended by blue and white ribbons.

Twenty girls will be invested into the award at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at St. Therese Catholic church, with the Rev. Florian Milbauer, parish assistant, performing the ceremonies.

A flag ceremony will be held in conjunction with the religious rites, which have been authorized for the St. Therese troops by the Rev. S. A. Borusky, scout chaplain for the diocese.

The girls will sing the Lourdes Pilgrim hymn as they march into the church and the flags and pins will be blessed by the priest, who will also deliver the invocation and give a brief talk on the Scout program and its relation to Catholicism.

Troop members will then be invested in the award, and will recite the Scout promises and laws and receive their pins from their parents. An act of consecration to the Virgin Mary will be made by the candidates and the service will close with benediction.

Other Honors

After the investiture, the Scouts, their parents and friends will adjourn to the church hall for the seventh annual court of awards ceremony conferred upon members of at St. Therese. A total of seven troops of intermediate girls and six troops of Brownies will participate in the service which will be conducted by Mrs. Anthony Daleiden, St. Therese Scout chairman. A reception is in charge of troop 140, comprising seventh-grade students, with Mrs. Frank Gorski serving as her assistant.

controlled key points in Algiers. Heavy guards surrounded the Algiers government general building and demanded passes from the committee of all persons seeking entry.

Massu's paratroopers were in control of radio stations, airports, railway stations, post offices and other communications points.

In Paris, President Coty issued an unprecedented order to all French forces to obey the new French government. Pflimlin issued a statement saying his government would punish those responsible for disturbances in Algeria.

Four prominent politicians with tough views on Algeria called for Pflimlin's resignation to make way for a national union government. They are former Premier Georges Bidault, Jacques Soustelle, Andre Morice and Roger Duchet.

Coty's broadcast to Algeria called on the insurgents to obey.

"In my capacity as chief of the army . . . I give you an order to fulfill your duties under the authority of the government of the French republic," he said.

Massu demanded that the war on the Algerian rebels be pushed vigorously to conclusion. In a new statement broadcast by Algiers radio he termed the Pflimlin cabinet a "government of abandonment."

The assembly reacted immediately to the military seizure of power in Algiers and in a post-midnight session voted Pflimlin into office 274-129. Coty installed the cabinet at once and they finished out the night in a meeting with the president, seeking ways of restoring the government's authority in Algiers.

The assembly vote came after a day of wild rioting by French ultra-nationalists in Paris and Algiers. In the North African capital the mob sacked the U. S. Information library and occupied the central government building, finally giving way to the military. In Paris police cordons kept the demonstrators from storming the assembly building and arrested about 150 persons suspected of membership in extreme rightist political groups.

Renews Pledges
The demonstrations and the Algiers coup were sparked by fear that Pflimlin's moderate government might yield to increasing international pressure to end the 3½-year-old Algerian rebellion by political concessions which would loosen French control in Algeria. Both mobs shouted anti-American slogans, the result of persistent reports that the U. S. government is urging negotiations with the Algerian nationalists.

After the cabinet meeting Pflimlin repeated previous pledges to increase efforts to keep Algeria for France.

Informal sources said Pflimlin's cabinet was split over how to handle the Algerian situation. Some ministers reportedly insisted that Massu must be recalled to Paris and disciplined for having assumed powers beyond his job and for ignoring civilian command of the army by his direct appeal to Coty.

Other ministers, fearing any move against Massu would provoke further demonstrations in Algiers, proposed that the government take the view the general only acted to maintain order in an unusual situation.

As for the possibility of the while there was no government in Paris. This, however, would be a virtual admission that the army and the rightist mob in Algiers holds a near-veto over the Paris government.

Solid Concrete Walls Warped and bulged in and out like cardboard and steel girders melted and bent from intense heat of a fire Tuesday which destroyed the interior of the building above, formerly used by the Diamond Match company at Oshkosh. The 60-foot high building was being prepared for storage of government surplus grain. Fire Chief Otto Stoegbauer placed the loss at a replacement value of almost $500,000 and said the building would have to be razed because it is no longer safe. (Post-Crescent Photo) economic aid and world trade is as vital to this country as is proper defense.

He mentioned Burma, India and South America as examples.

He said it looks like some sort of concerted idea or pattern. Eisenhower then said he was making no direct accusation, but that it looks like a case of a lot of smoke and therefore there is a possibility of some fire.

The president dealt with these other topics:

The four companies of army paratroopers and marines dispatched to Caribbean bases have been sent in the simplest kind of precautionary move — because during the rioting in Caracas yesterday there was much uncertainty whether Nixon and his party could be protected by the Venezuelan government.

Eisenhower called it simply a case of putting troops where they will be available if Venezuela should seek help.

As for whether the United States anticipated that Nixon would encounter the sort of violence he has in South America, Eisenhower said the possibility was discussed but that no one at any time thought of canceling the vice president's trip in advance of departure.

The administration is going to have to decide soon, Eisenhower said, whether to advocate a tax cut as an anti-recession step.

He made that reply when reminded that corporation taxes and certain excise levies will automatically be reduced at the end of June unless congress acts meantime on the administration's current recommendation that the present level be continued.

Tax Cut Question
Asked whether he would favor an income tax reduction, or would veto such a bill, the president said with a laugh that the newsman was trying to him to prophesy again.

Then he said he sees nothing to change his position of the last few months—an apparent allusion to his frequently stat-

Foreign Aid Bill Due for House Passage

Washington — (AP) — Defeat of a major fund-cutting amendment brought predictions the house would pass intact today a $3,603,000,000 program of overseas aid for next year.

But the actual amount of money, within the ceilings fixed by the pending authorization bill, will be determined in an appropriations measure to come later.

Acting Chairman Thomas E. Morgan (D-Pa.) of the foreign affairs committee reacted cautiously to the string of victories yesterday against efforts to cut the bill. He was wary because, he said, results were easy so far.

Rep. E. Ross Adair (R-Ind.), a leader in the money-slashing attempts, said: "It seems to me the action of the house yesterday pretty well determined the size of the bill."

Opponents yesterday attacked the aid effort as wasteful. They said renewed outbreaks of violence directed at Vice President Nixon in South America and U. S. libraries elsewhere abroad showed that American dollars failed to buy friends overseas. News of sending U. S. troops to the Caribbean had not yet come in.

A standing vote of 102-50 beat down a move by Rep. William ed contention that the tax situation needs more study.

Eisenhower threw cold water on the idea or any new big public works program to counter the business slump. He said some programs already under way—such as construction of post offices are all right, but that it would be at least two years before construction of any new large projects could get under way.

Eisenhower said the United States is consulting with its allies regarding Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's latest note expressing willingness to start talks on the policing of any nuclear test ban. The matter is being studied carefully and he will send a reply to Khrushchev soon, the president said.

Avoids Questions

At the outset of the conference, Eisenhower asked to be excused from answering any questions dealing with the current unrest in Lebanon and Algeria.

There have been anti-American demonstrations in both countries, and in Algeria the French army has seized control of the government—in opposition to the policies of the Paris regime.

Eisenhower said the situation in both Lebanon and Algeria are being watched very closely. He added they both are cases where emotions have been stirred and because of the delicacy of the picture, he preferred not to discuss those situations.

Eisenhower said he deplores the use of federal troops anywhere to enforce court orders. He made that remark when asked whether he might follow the same course he did in Little Rock, Ark., if there should be violence in other states over school integration as there was in that case.

The president sent troops to Central High school in Little Rock last September to enforce a court integration order last few months—an apparent allusion to his frequently stat-

M. Colmer (D-Miss) to strip the program of $1½ billion, nearly all its economic aid. A 73-41 vote killed an amendment by Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich) to trim $340 millions from the $1,640,000,000 proposed for arms help.

A 91-60 count defeated Adair's motion for a $100 million cut in the $775 million earmarked for economic assistance for foreign defense programs.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Don't live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEREETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEREETH at any drug counter.

Picnic Supper Suggestions Given by Agent

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau

Oshkosh — With the arrival of warm weather, families soon will be packing picnic baskets for suppers in the park, at favorite countryside spots or just for the backyard for a variation in dining routine. Several fillings suitable for picnic sandwiches have been suggested by Miss Lois Klusmeyer, county home agent.

For egg sandwich fillings, chop hard cooked eggs and mix with mayonnaise or salad dressing. Salt to taste. For variation add chopped pickle, olives or green pepper or finely chopped celery or grated carrot. Tuna fish and pickles makes another filling.

Toasted cheese and egg sandwiches can be fixed in the broiler. The recipe requires three eggs, one-half teaspoon salt, one-half cup grated cheese, six slices bread and three slices bacon. Beat the eggs slightly, add salt. Add the cheese. Toast the bread on one side. On the untoasted side, spread the cheese and egg mixture. Cut the bacon into bits and put pieces on top. Toast under the broiler until the egg and bacon are cooked. The recipe makes six sandwiches.

Indian Youth To be Guests at Clayton Farm

To Entertain IFYE
Delegat in August

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau
Oshkosh — Two Fox Cities area families Tuesday received information about the foreign youths they will be hosts to this summer under the International Farm Youth Exchange program. An area meeting of seven families in northeastern Wisconsin who will receive foreign farm youths was held at the courthouse here Tuesday.
The Joseph Wittmann family of route 4, Appleton, will be host to Hugh Hamill, a 25-year-old youth from northern Ireland who farms with his father on a 75 acre farm.
He will be a guest at the Wittmann home from June 5 to 23.
Guest From India
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Anderson of the town of Clayton will have the young manager of an agricultural and poultry farm in India, Nachhattar Singh Gwal, 24, as their guest from Aug. 3 to 20. Their guest is married and speaks English, Hindi, Punjabi and Urdu.
The Indian youth also will spend two weeks in Dodge county and stay also in Chippewa and Jackson counties.
Verne V. Varney, assistant state 4-H club leader, met with the families here Tuesday to explain the operations of the program and to acquaint the host families with the information about their guests. The IFYE program is sponsored by the national 4-H foundation and the cooperative extension service.

Twenty-four from the state already have visiting overseas through the program and four more are going this summer.

only such group in Wisconsin and one of only about 30 in the nation. R. G. DuCharme, mayor of Menasha, said that the state is watching the situation here carefully. He noted that this voluntary movement here fails, the state may make such professional planning obligatory under law in fast growing areas like the Fox Cities.

John G. Konrad, executive secretary of the Neenah-Menasha Chamber of Commerce, told the planning commission members that the Twin Cities have a number of pressing problems that cannot wait three years for solution, as would be the case under the proposed regional plan.
Konrad urged that if such a plan be undertaken, it be started and finished in Neenah-Menasha before going on to the other cities and villages.
The regional plan, as outlined by Schellie, would include detailed smaller growth plans for each of the member municipalities.
Konrad produced the results of a chamber survey of other cities with comprehensive plans which indicated that each of the 71 cities answering paid an average of $20,500 for a plan. The average completion time for such a plan was 20 months.
Regional Plan Cheaper
Wood used these figures to show that under a regional plan, with one staff settling in the valley and working for each of the cities, Neenah and Appleton, the largest of the Menasha could have local plan for a total of about $13,000 (the gobble us up," said Shattuck. total annual assessments minus the cost of administering the commission with the increased staff).
Under plans contracted for individually by the cities, the total cost would be about $41,000.
Moreover, said Clarence Hammond, planning director, the cities would get more for their planning dollar than under regional proposal than under one-shot local plans. The regional plan would continue to be administered by an established local agency, namely, the Fox Valley Regional Planning commission.
On a local level, a regional professional plan would list the needs of each city, in order of

Volunteer Firemen Name Committees

Winnecoonne — Committees of the combined volunteer fire department were named by Herman Nimmer, president, recently. Matt Neumann was named chairman of a baseball committee to work out a schedule with Winchester for use of the lighted field one night a week.
Also on that committee are Bob Beiser, Ed Quigley, William Kinney, Stanley Livingston of Menasha, said that the Norman Flanagan. Franstate is watching the situation here carefully. He noted that this voluntary movement here fails, the state may make such professional planning obligatory under law in fast growing areas like the Fox Cities.

The fire location committee members are Irv Peterson, Tolson Bahrke, Harvey Ristow, Lester O'Connell and Leo Crowley. On the training committee are Herman Nimmer, Neenah — Rural firemen of the joint Neenah and Menasha township department extinguished a blaze at the Henry Swatscheno farm on the Tullar road Tuesday afternoon. their importance, and suggest appropriate financing methods. Hammond said. He noted that earlier local planning would not be discarded but would be revised and amplified.
S. F. Shattuck, Neenah financier and philanthropist who was one of the founders of the regional commission, told the Twin City aldermen that "Whether we like it or not, we are all part of each other" and each community is dependent on the others socially, economically and culturally.
Shattuck urged the acceptance of such a regional plan, noting that the population has grown greatly in recent years and is expected to grow even more in coming years. "The future is quicker on the doorstep," Shattuck said.
Ald. Warren Sanders of Neenah urged better liaison and communications between the regional commission and the various local governing bodies. "The average council member is not too well informed of the commission's activities," he said.

Close Dumps on Windy Weekends

Neenah — The city dumps will be closed to the public on Saturdays and Sundays from now on if the wind is strong. Wayne G. Bryan, public works director, said this morning.

Several complaints were received Saturday, Bryan said, from residents near the dumps who said the wind was blowing trash onto their property.

The dumps will be open on weekdays, regardless of wind conditions, for the city rubbish crews, he said. "The crews will cope with the conditions as well as possible," Bryan added.

After the new Twin City incinerators are in regular use, expected within two weeks, the problem will be almost completely eliminated. The Winnebago avenue dumps will then be used only for dirt, stumps, concrete and other large non-combustible waste, Bryan said.

Green Bay Man Hurt As Car, Truck Collide

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau

Oshkosh — Lawrence Danforth, 50, Green Bay, received a fractured right shoulder in an accident at the Highway 41-26 intersection near here at 6:48 Monday night involving a car driven by his wife and a cattle truck driven by Ralph Zehner, 47, route 1, Larsen. The Danforth car was headed northeast on Highway 26 and the cattle truck was going north on Highway 41. Danforth was treated at Mercy hospital where he was taken in the Miller ambulance.

Catholics Observe Feast as Holy Day Of Obligation

Menasha — Twin City Catholics will observe the feast of Christ's ascension into heaven Thursday with Catholics throughout the Western world. The day is a holy day of obligation among Catholics. Wednesday, the vigil, however, is not a day of fast or abstinence.

Special masses are scheduled at all four Twin City parishes. In three parishes, evening masses are planned.

According to the Bible and tradition, Christ ascended bodily into heaven 40 days after He rose from the dead. He spent his last 40 days on earth with the apostles and disciples, explaining the principles of His religion and commanding them to carry on His teachings.

He also promised the apostles that the Holy Ghost would come to them, infusing ability and zeal for teaching. The remembrance of this event is Pentecost Sunday, 10 days after the Ascension.

Among Catholics of the Eastern rite, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost are observed several weeks later than in the Western church.

Masses at St. Margaret Mary church in Neenah Thursday morning will be at 5:30, 6:45, 8 o'clock, 10 o'clock and 12:10. No evening mass is scheduled.

At St. Mary church morning masses will be at 5 o'clock, 7:15, 8:45 high mass and up to 10:30. The evening mass will be at 5 o'clock.

At St. Patrick church masses will be at 5:30, 6:45, 8 o'clock, 10 o'clock and 12:10. No evening mass is scheduled.

350 to Display "Youth on Parade" At St. Patrick

Menasha — About 350 youngsters will take part in the St. Patrick church "Youth on Parade" program at the school May 21. The program will be a review and demonstration of youth activities in the parish, according to Walter Kemmel, activities director.

A 1-hour stage program and handicraft exhibits will be offered, marking the third year of organized youth activities at St. Patrick. The athletic program will be represented by basketball, football and gym.

Parents, parish members and other interested persons have been asked to attend the program, which is free.

Board to Act on Swimming Project

Winneconne — Scheduled for action at the Thursday meeting of the village board will be a decision on the summer swimming project, discussion of the cost of the proposed new fire house and a review of village police policies, particularly as it involves granting police powers to the village bridge tenders.

The board met last week and decided to take up those subjects then. It also set the street elevation for Olive street and allocated $86 of its recreation fund to the Winneconne school patrol fund.

At a meeting of the village planning commission Tom Hendry reported all necessary steps had been taken for a hearing May 19 on the proposed zoning ordinance. Street elevations were discussed and it was agreed the village board should establish an official elevation.

The planning commission also is recommending that the village board authorize it to set up a street name and house numbering system for presentation to the board.

Opens Defense of Championship in Church Circuit

Neenah — Defending champion St. Margaret Mary will make its first start of the spring in the Neenah Church Softball league when it battles Methodist at 6:30 tonight at the Recreation diamond.

Martin Luther and St. Mark, both new entries, are matched in the 8 o'clock contest.

Presbyterian bested United Brethren — St. Thomas and St. Paul won over Trinity in Monday night's initial set of games.

Menasha High Netters Meet Shipbuilders

Neenah Seeks 2nd Straight Victory Over Terror Club

Menasha — Having played each other Tuesday for the second time this spring, the Neenah and Menasha netters will go their separate ways starting Thursday when they bump into Fox River Valley conference opposition.

Menasha meets another stiff test when it journeys to Manitowoc while Neenah is at home to Appleton.

Manitowoc has a record of 13 straight wins this spring and its victims include Wauwatosa, which defeated Neenah.

The Shipbuilders have a veteran lineup with Al LeClair, Brian Eisner, Dick Schroeder, John Zalesky, Dick Hall, Bob Shaw and Jim Hein as lettermen but a sophomore, Bill Zigmund, has worked his way into a berth in the starting line-up.

Manitowoc Cops — Last season, the Shipbuilders tripped Menasha 6-1. Bob Hodiakiewicz trimmed Dick Hall for the only Menasha win. Manitowoc victors were Eisner over Clem Stein, LeClair over Jim Cronin, Shaw over Bob Adams and Tom Winter over Dick Lang in singles and Wiesner - Winter and LeClair-Tom Frieder in doubles.

Neenah blanked Appleton 7-0 in their first meeting on April 10.

Winners were Dick Wilson over Charles Riley, Dave Reimer over Fred Junger, Jack Anderson over John Zimmerman, Judd Koehn over Lee Ruth and Dale Mrotek over Marty Semmelhack in singles and Anderson - Wilson and Mrotek - Reimer in doubles.

2 Bowling Meetings Carded at Lakeroad

Neenah — Two meetings to squads, and scouting demonstration spring bowling leagues strations will be given by Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts.

Parents, parish members and other interested persons have been asked to attend the program, which is free.

The men's circuit would begin action about June 1 and roll for 10 weeks. It would continue through next winter on Saturday afternoons.

The men's circuit would begin action about June 1 and roll for 10 weeks. It would continue through next winter on Saturday afternoons.

Rural Teachers Win County Scholarship

Menasha — Mrs. Barbara Gell, a teacher at Spring Road school, town of Menasha, and Mrs. Helen Schultz, principal of Clayton school, town of Clayton, will share a scholarship to the Trees for Tomorrow camp near Eagle River.

The scholarship is offered each year by the education committee of the Winnebago county board. The women will attend a 3-week course in August.

Members of the Green Bay Packers met with Neenah and Menasha industrial and business leaders at a luncheon Tuesday noon at the Elks club at which Hugh Strange, Neenah, a member of the Packer board, was host. Seated above are Ron Kramer, Packer star who should learn in a week if he is to go into the Air Force, and George Thompson, Menasha. Standing are Ted Gilbert, left, and Ray "Scooter" McLean, new Packer coach. McLean said he wasn't building for the future but was looking to the 1958 season for a "representative" team. Vern Lewellen, business manager, said the Packer intrasquad game might return to Menasha, although not next fall. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Neenah Track Squad Whips Fond du Lac

Rockets Sweep Mile, 880 Races; Relay; Syring Notches Two Wins

Fond du Lac — Sweeping the half mile and mile and adding a brilliant 3:48.3 mark in the mile relay, the third best time in the state this spring, Neenah registered a 691-483 dual win over Fond du Lac here Tuesday afternoon.

The victory was the sixth straight of the spring for the Rockets and their seventeenth straight over the last three seasons. Fondy was the last team to defeat them, and that reverse came in the last meet of 1955.

The Rockets picked up eight firsts. Fond du Lac had four and they split the relay events.

High Jumps 6-2
In addition to the brilliant medley time, the meet was co-featured by a sparkling jump of 6 feet, 2 inches by Darrell McArthur of Fondy in the high jump. It bettered his own school record and was just three-quarters of an inch below the existing state standard.

Ralph Syring was the lone Neenah double winner, copping both weight events. McArthur also won the high hurdles and Dick Zoelle took both dashes to give the Cardinals their four firsts.

Syring had a toss of 131 feet, 11 inches in the discus, his best effort of the spring. Syring's winning shot put was 46 feet, 1 inch, his second best mark.

Jim Quade Cops
Jim Quade won the mile in 4:39.2, also his second best time of the spring. Brother Henry was second and Howard Thorpe finished third.

Wayne Rudolph remained unbeaten at the half mile with a first in 2:06. Mike Lintner, a sophomore who previously ran the anchor leg of the medley relay, was second and Bill Meyer gained third.

Fred Seggelink maintained his perfect record in the pole vault with a winning jump of 11 feet. Jerry Hensen was second and Dick Geiger tied for third. Hensen and Seggelink, the short and tall of the Rocket basketball team last winter, reversed places in the broad jump. Hensen won with 18 feet, 3 inches with Seggelink second.

Perfect Record
Eric Anderson kept his record perfect in the 440, winning in 33.2, his best effort of the spring. Jim Miller added five points with a first in the low hurdles in 22.7, also his best mark of the year.

The medley relay team was made up of Mel Bayer and Dan Jack in the 220s. Ralph Frank at 440 and Hector Fischer in the 880 leg. Fischer, who had run the half mile the last three years, took Fondy's Pat Brunett on the final turn and won by 10 yards.

Zephyrs Vie With Stevens Point '9'

Menasha — St. Mary will make another bid for its second win of the spring when it plays a doubleheader at Stevens Point Pacelli Thursday afternoon. The Zephyrs lost to Hortonville 10-2 Tuesday and now have a 1-5 record.

They were originally scheduled to play one game tomorrow but it became a doubleheader when the scheduled Menasha meeting was called off because of wet grounds on May 3. St. Mary downed the Pointers 6-4 last year in their first meeting in history.

Speeder Forfeits

Oshkosh — Gordon K. Downey, route 2, Neenah, forfeited $14.35 to Oshkosh police Monday for speeding. The money was turned over to municipal court Tuesday.

NHS Netmen Beat Jays 5-2

Meyer Bests Jim Stenson At No. 1 Spot

Neenah — Coach Ivan Williams' Neenah High school netters dealt Menasha its second defeat of the season in their second match Tuesday afternoon at the Rocket courts. The score was 5-2, the same as the first time around.

Two Menasha boys and one Rocket singles player avenged last week's defeats. At No. 1, Ed Meyer, who is quickly rounding into form after a long layoff due to an injury, dealt Menasha sophomore Jim Stenson his first defeat of the season. The scores were 6-2, 7-5 and for Meyer it reversed a loss.

Menasha picked up both of its points in the singles where Bob Hordkiewicz won over Dave Reiersen 6-4, 6-4 at No. 3 and Tom Krysiak won over Paul Valente 6-4, 6-1 at No. 5. Both Reiersen and Valente downed their Menasha foes last week.

Sophomore Dick Wilson of the Rockets turned back Jim Cronin 6-1, 6-2 at the No. 2 spot and Jack Ankerson, another second year student, maintained his perfect mark by trimming Bob Adams in three sets at No. 4 to the tune of 4-6, 6-3, 6-3 scores.

Sweep Doubles
Neenah swept both doubles matches as Wilson and Ankerson topped Stenson and Adams 8-6, 6-4 and Meyer and Reiersen bested Cronin and Hordkiewicz in a marathon 11-9, 4-6, 9-7.

The exhibition summary: Neenah exhibition winners were Steve Price and Nick Farrell 6-3, 8-6. Duane Anderson over Bill Ritchie 7-5, 6-0. Dale Mrocz over Dan Art 6-6, 6-2. 6-1. Fred Kuester over Roger Robinson 6-3, 6-0. Price-Anderson over Stickle-Art 6-3, 6-3 and Kuester-Ollie Hoppe over Farrell-John Bertram 6-3, 6-2.

Menasha exhibition winners were Fred Hollenbeck over Hoppe 6-2, 4-6, 6-2. Bertram over Ned Reid 6-8, 6-3, 6-4. Jim Vandecastle over Ben Hultner 7-5, 6-3 and Kristian-Hollenbeck over Judd Koehn-Valente 6-4, 6-4.

Slightly Injured Into Auto Collision
Neenah — Mrs. Robert J. Hurst, 646 Cleveland street, suffered a slight shoulder injury in an accident at Church street and W. Doty avenue 1:30 Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Hurst's auto collided with a car driven by George W. Prey, 50, 307 Torrey street. Mrs. Hurst was driving north on Church street and Prey was going west on Doty avenue.

Exclusive Filter-Agitator represents the most revolutionary change in agitator design since it was invented by Maytag. Water is circulated through agitator, forced out through channels in the bottom to supplement normal agitation. Filter is in the agitator, underwater where the lint is. Surface lint as well as lint suspended in water is filtered out as water circulates through agitator. Cavity in agitator holds detergent, circulating water dissolves it completely, diffuses it uniformly through water, prevents heavy concentrations of undissolved detergent from discoloring or damaging fabric.

Two Rivers Nine Hands Truckers 6-4 Setback

Raiders Take Advantage of Eight Errors

Clintonville — The Two Rivers High school baseball team defeated Clintonville, 6-4, here Tuesday afternoon.

Three Trucker pitchers gave up a total of only four hits, but their mates were guilty of eight errors. Clintonville made eight hits but could not bunch them effectively.

Clintonville took a 1-run first inning lead behind starter Dave Bohman, who held the Purple Raiders in check until they began taking advantage of bad fielding in the fourth. Two Raider hits, by Pries and Markusen, plus a hit batsman, an error, and two fielder's choices gave the Lake city preps three runs and a 3-1 lead in the fourth.

Two doubles, one by Lawrence and another by Ron Brault, plus two errors upped the lead to 5-1 in the fifth frame. The final Raider tally was granted without the benefit of a single in the sixth.

Russ Huebner took over on the Clintonville mound in the sixth. Brault three four innings, then gave way to Markusen.

The Truckers got to Markusen after two were out in the sixth. Three singles and Bob Gensler's 2-run double made the rally a 3-run affair and brought Brault's hasty return to the hill. He walked a man and permitted Lichtenberg's line single but fanned Dick Koeppen to stifle Clint hopes.

Clintonville's third pitcher, Jim Petcka, loaded the sacks with one out in the seventh but Huebner returned to set down the Raiders without a score.

Foxes to Hold Clinic for Women Fans

The Fox Cities Foxes will stage a baseball clinic for women at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning on Goodland field, club president Ray McClone has announced.

Manager Pete Suder and the Fox Cities players will be on hand to demonstrate and explain various plays and situations and will answer any questions feminine fans may have.

The purpose of the clinic is to interest more women in baseball and to help them to a better understanding of the game.

Coffee and doughnuts will also be served, according to McClone.

He says that those interested should address a card to the Fox Cities Baseball Club, Box 403, Appleton, so advance arrangements can be made.

Lawrence College Awaits Arrival Of Midwest Conference Track Stars

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

A careful grooming is making Lawrence college's Whiting field more susceptible to record-breaking and more pleasing to the fans eyes for the Midwest conference track meet already bettered the time with Friday and Saturday.

Lawrence is serving as host to the meet for the first time since 1949. Close to 200 of the collegiate circuit's best athletes will participate.

Trials in the 100 and 200 yard dashes the two hurdles races and the 440 and 889 yard runs will begin at 4 15 Friday afternoon. The other preliminaries and all of the finals will be held Saturday afternoon.

Records in Jeopardy

On the basis of performances to date, several conference and Whiting field records (which are listed elsewhere on this page) will be in jeopardy, for example, in preliminary competition.

Marohl struck out 11, walked three and retired the last 15 batters in the third by center fielder Dave Minton. Kimberly scored its other run in the first on a walk and an error.

Shawano went ahead with four runs in the first inning on a grand slam by Lyons' grand slam home run.

Marv Smuts started for Kimberly, allowing a hit and a walk and then departing. Henry Peerenboom finished, giving up four hits, walking three and striking out seven in six innings.

Kaukauna — The Menasha Bluejays took over the sole lead in Mid-eastern conference baseball race here Tuesday afternoon by pounding out a 7 to 2 decision over Kaukauna.

The winners spotted Kaukauna a run in the bottom of the first but then took the lead in the third and were never in trouble the rest of the contest.

Three Jay hurlers combined to limit Kaukauna to seven hits but it was the chucking of Gordy Selbach that stood out. He struck out the side in the fifth and with the bases full in the last of the seventh, struck out the final batter.

Kaukauna opened the scoring in the first on a single by Bruce Vanevenhoven, a single by Gary Vanevenhoven and a fielder's choice. Menasha stormed into the lead in the fourth when Wilde singled and Dave Neubauer rapped a homer. A third run crossed the plate on a single and a double.

The winners added three runs in the sixth on a double, a walk, a fielders choice, an error and another single. The final tally came in the top of the seventh on a single and a double.

The Ghosts loaded the bases on two walks after Pahl's single but with two outs and the sacks jammed, Selbach took over on the mound to retire the last man swinging. The trio of Jay hurlers struck out 13 Kaukauna batters.

Phils Tumble Braves From NL Lead, 5 to 2

Roberts Snaps Winning Streak At Seven Games

Philadelphia — The Milwaukee Braves may find their labors more profitable if they are miles away from Philadelphia the next time General Manager Roy Hamey publicly scolds his Phillies as amateurs. That was no pep talk Hamey gave his players Tuesday, but a good old fashioned bawling out.

It paid off Tuesday night with a 5-2 victory over Milwaukee that dropped the Braves out of first place as their seven-game winning streak was broken.

While the results produced bad news for the defending champions, it was all good for the Phillies, especially pitcher Robin Roberts who won his second game after losing four straight, as had the Phillies. It was the 191st victory for the veteran right-hander in 11 years with the Phillies, and he became the team's winningest pitcher. The old mark of 190 victories was run up by Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Only Other Win

Roberts' only other victory this season was at the expense of the Braves last month. In beating them again Tuesday night he allowed only six hits, struck out three and didn't give up a walk.

The defeat was charged to Bob Buhl and was his second against four victories. He had beaten the Phillies in 12 straight games, including two this year. He had lost to Philadelphia on June 12, 1956.

The only bright spot in the Milwaukee demonstration was Hank Aaron's fifth homer, a solo blast in the fourth. Milwaukee lost in the fourth. Milwaukee lost in the fourth.

Davenport lost its second straight baseball game Tuesday after a 7-game winning streak but held on to its 3-game lead in the Three-I League.

While the Iowans were being dumped by Green Bay, 6-1, second place Fox Cities was losing to Rochester, 9-2. In the other game Cedar Rapids shaded Burlington, 8-7.

The hitting of Al Santuzzi and Shelly Brodsky and the 3-hit pitching of Ed Rachow were the big Green Bay weapons. Each banged a double and homer. Andy Vanderveide contributed a run-scoring triple to Green Bay's 3-run first inning.

Cedar Rapids rode a big inning to victory over Burlington, putting across six runs in the seventh on four hits, three walks, a hit batsman and an error.

McFarland Wins on 6-Hitter

Rochester, Minn. — The Rochester Athletics unleashed a 3-home run barrage here Tuesday night to hand the Fox Cities nine a 9-2 defeat.

Don McFarland backed up his mate's lucky hitting with a 6-hit pitching performance to even his record at 2-2. Bill Felker, the starter and loser, went the first five innings. Rene Nodarse finished up for the Foxes.

Concluded Tonight

The Foxes conclude their 3-game set with Rochester tonight before returning home for a Thursday night date with first-place Davenport.

The Foxes' top RBI man Bob Van Dyke, batted in both Foxes' runs. In the first he hit a sacrifice fly to score Bob Tano who had singled and taken third on an error. Van Dyke singled in his team's final run in the fifth after Felker and Tano had singled ahead of him.

Dave Gorrie punched a lead-off home run for Rochester in the first, and Ron McCutcheon did the same thing in the fourth. McCutcheon's drive went about 375 feet.

Traver Homers

Bob Traver's 2-run homer highlighted the 5-run fifth, with which the A's solidified the win. Fox Cities Manager Pete Sunder protested after an umpire's decision on a tag play in the sixth, but it was not

Gross Gives Pirates 5th Straight Win

Fine Relief Stint Stops Redlegs; Giants Romp to Regain NL Lead

BY ED WILKS
Of The Associated Press

You might say the Cincinnati Redlegs made a gross error last December when they traded southpaw Don Gross to Pittsburgh.

The deal capped a 5-day swapping spree that brought the Reds a half-dozen new pitchers and gave them their No. 1 starter of the moment, Bob Purkey (3-1). But the trade gave the Pirates what the Reds needed most—a tough relief man.

The 26-year-old lefty has won one, saved three for the Pirates and hasn't allowed a run in 14 2-3 innings. He's given up just four hits, while striking out 16.

Fans Four
Gross fanned four in three perfect relief innings against his old mates last night, saving a 6-3 victory for the Pirates, who have won five straight and 14 of their last 18.

It was the fourth defeat in a row for the Reds, who blew early leads in all of them.

The third place Pirates now are a half-game behind San Francisco. The Giants regained the National league lead by rocking Los Angeles, 16-9, for their sixth straight victory. Philadelphia dropped Milwaukee kee to second, ending the Braves' streak at six, 5-2.

Stan Musial finally collected his 3,000th hit, touching off a rally with a pinch double as the St. Louis Cardinals won their sixth straight, 5-3, over the Chicago Cubs.

The Pirates jammed six of their 11 hits into a 5-run third that junked a 3-0 Redleg lead and handed Brooks Lawrence his third defeat. Bill Mazeroski homered, Bill Virdon tripled and Ted Kluszewski, another ex-Redleg, doubled in the big inning.

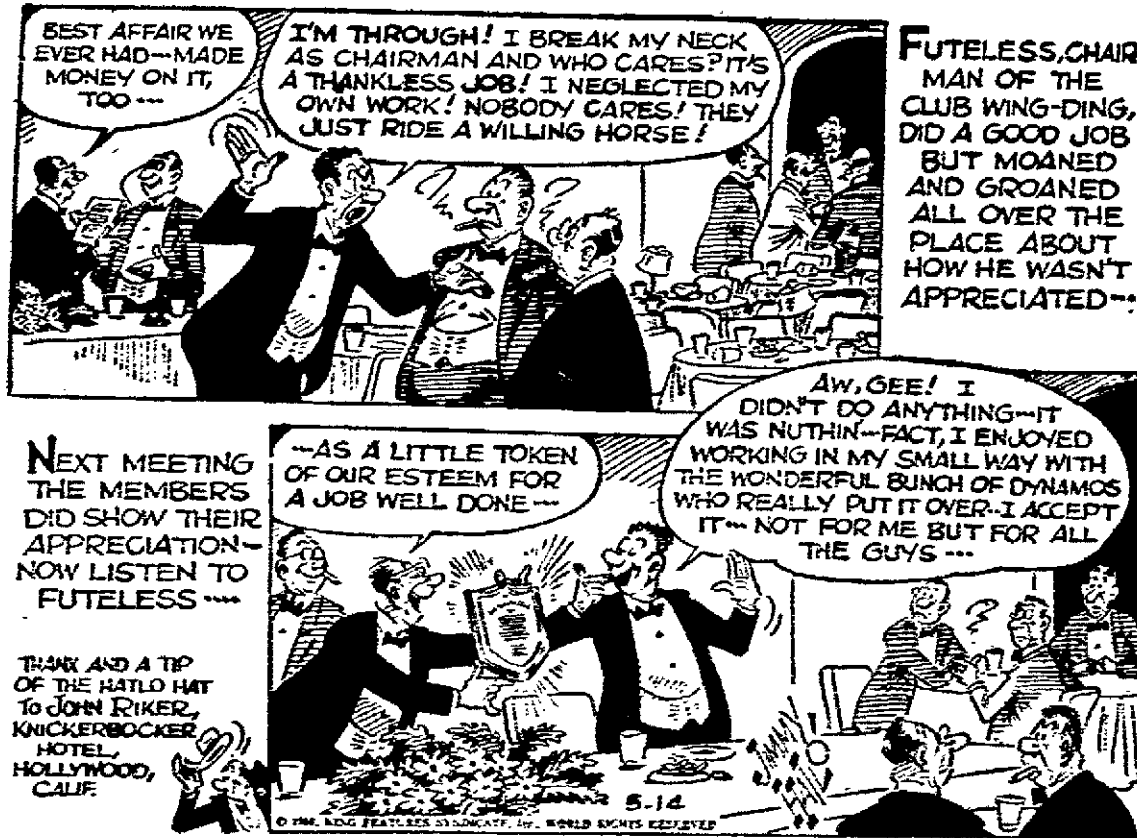

Moe Drabowsky gave up the pinch-blow by Musial and lost his third straight. Lee Walls hit his tenth homer for the Cubs, who now have lost seven in a row.

Willie Mays and Daryl Spencer, each hitting two home runs for the second straight game, drove in 10 runs between them for the Giants, who counted 26 hits and 50 total bases, a modern NL record.

Mays, with seven homers in four games, was 3-for-5. Spencer 4-for-6 with six RBI as the Giants also set a modern major league record with five players getting four or more hits. There were nine home runs in the game with Charlie Neal belting two of the Dodgers' Philadelphia dropped Milwaukee

Stan Raps 3,000th Hit

Musial Wishes He Had Broken Mark at Home

Chicago — Stan Musial, becoming the eighth major leaguer to hit safely 3,000 times, "I wish I had made it in St. Louis," he said, "but I'm glad it's over with."

Benching His Star
Cardinal Manager Fred Hutchinson had benched his star to give him the opportunity to get the big hit in St. Louis where the Cardinals meet San Francisco tonight.

But with the team trailing, 3-1, in the sixth inning, a man on second and only one out, Hutchinson called on the 37-year-old veteran. Musial worked the count to 2-2 and then drove a Moe Drabowsky offering into left field for a double.

Photographers rushed on the field, the ball was brought to Musial and Hutchinson walked out to congratulate Stan.

Hutchinson then sent in a pinch runner and photographers, reporters, newsreel cameramen and well-wishers mobbed Musial in the dugout runway.

Two hours later he was still surrounded by interviewers in the clubhouse.

Within Range
Musial's desire to become the greatest hit-maker in the league is within range. Honus Wagner ended his National league career with 3,430 hits.

This figure is surpassed by the American league's Ty Cobb (with 4,191) and Tris Speaker (with 3,515). Behind Wagner are Eddie Collins with 3,313, Nap Lajoie 3,251, Paul Waner 3,152, "Cap" Anson 3,081 and Musial.

If Musial keeps coming back and continues at the pace he has set, he will pass Wagner's total sometime in 1960.

Musial did it in his sixteenth season. Cobb was the only other player to do it in less than 17 years and Musial bettered Cobb's time by three months.

Lions' Hansen Hurls 6-2 Win Over Reedsville

Allows 3 Hits And Whiffs 15 Batters

Reedsville — Flashy left-hander Bob Hansen restricted Reedsville to three singles Tuesday afternoon as he pitched Brillion High school to a 6-2 non-conference baseball victory.

Hansen mowed down 15 batters on strikes, walked three and hit three.

John Dietrich, the starter and loser, allowed five hits in the five innings he worked.

striking out three and walking five. Mel Otto finished up, giving two hits, walking none and striking out four.

Brillion scored two in the second on singles by Hansen, Zander and Lloyd Herwig and a walk to Wolf. Reedsville tied it in its half of the second on Orrin Piepenburg's bases-loaded sacrifice fly and a double steal.

Zander drove in Belanger with the run that in the fifth proved to be the clincher. The Lions added three in the seventh for insurance.

Yanks' Larsen Blanks Orioles On Four-Hitter

Boston Defeats Washington, 9-6; White Sox Win

By The Associated Press

Time was when those New York Yankees kept padding their American league lead with power at the plate. Now they're doing it with pitching.

The Yankee staff leads the majors with five shutouts and Don Larsen has two of them, pushing his scoreless inning string to 23 Tuesday night with a 4-hitter that beat the Baltimore Orioles, 3-0.

White Sox Win
That put New York three games ahead of second place Washington, beaten, 9-6, by Boston. Detroit moved within .004 percentage of the third place Orioles with an 11-1 job on Cleveland, and the Chicago White Sox defeated Kansas City, 9-2.

Larsen had been idled since April 21 by shoulder trouble, and rain.

The big right-hander, whose perfect game in the 1956 World Series, ended a shutout duel with Connie Johnson with his second home run of the season, tenth in the majors, in the fifth inning. Larsen, 2-for-2 at bat, walked ahead of Hank Bauer's two-run double in the seventh.

It was Larsen's sixth straight over the Orioles, but it wasn't a breeze. He walked four, had

Elm Tree, Krambo and Power Company Win

Open Action in ARD's Association Industrial Loop

The Power company, Elm Tree and Krambo posted opening round victories in the Appleton Recreation department's Association Industrial softball league Tuesday.

The Power company blanked the Brady company, 5-0, collecting seven hits to the losers' five. Vindhurst was the winning pitcher, Green the loser.

Elm Tree tripped United Grocers, 12-8, though Dietzen and Kolosso each whacked home runs for United. Dietzen and Thork each had three hits for the losers.

Krambo nudged Wire Works, 9-8, as McGuire homered in the first inning and then again with two out in the last half of the seventh to win the game. Maronek poled a grand slam in the fourth for Krambo. Winning pitcher Hamer yielded six hits, loser Henning gave up eight.

Yearly Kill of Muskies May Total 47,000

Startling Figure Obtained in Survey, Department Assers

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — The conservation department today came up with the startling conclusion that more than 47,000 muskellunge are harvested from Wisconsin waters each season.

The department reported, for what they are worth, the results of a poll of fishing license holders of last year, resident and non-resident.

It found that nine per cent of resident fishermen and somewhat more than 10 per cent of non-residents said they hunt the musky — king of the Wisconsin sports fishes.

Margins of Error
About 16 per cent of those who fished for the species allowed that they were successful, and on that basis the department's statisticians projected the harvest of 47,700 fish.

(One Wisconsin outdoors writer recently provoked a storm by asserting the state's harvest probably doesn't exceed 1,000 legal muskies a season.)

Dr. E. W. Schneberger, head of the state fisheries division which sponsored the study, was asked whether he regarded the result as authoritative or reliable.

"We believe that it is within reasonable margins of error," he replied.

Schneberger said the state survey was corroborated in part by at least one private study.

A widely known Sawyer county resort has kept records on muskellunge harvesting from a well-known lake for many years, and finds that the average season return is equal to about one fish for six acres of water.

The state study brought about the same ratio of success to water area, the official pointed out.

Board Studies Legion Use of Kaukauna Land

The county board has taken under advisement a request from Kaukauna to release county land in the city for an American Legion clubhouse and memorial park.

The land is along Plank road, just east of Washington street.

The Kaukauna city council May 6 voted to deed the land to the Legion, but restrictions on the original gift of the land to the city by the county prevented such action. The county must lift its restriction that the land must be used for either a park or a school before the clubhouse can be built.

The county originally deeded the land, part of the Grignon home property, to Kaukauna for use as a hospital. The city decided not to use it for a hospital site and the county authorized its use for a school or park.

Tri-City Coin Club To Elect Officers And Hold Auction

The Tri-City Coin club will elect officers and hold an auction when it meets at 7:30 Thursday night at the Menasha library.

The meeting is open to the public, particularly the program and coin auction said President Everett A. Stecker Appleton. A round table discussion by members will center on early American coins, he said.

Kaukauna Man Hurt In Green Bay Crash

Green Bay — Richard J. Powers, 33, 1509 Oakridge avenue, Kaukauna, was taken to St. Vincent hospital with facial lacerations after the car he was driving crashed into a parked car on a west side street about 12:08 this morning. He told police he must have fallen asleep.

High school baseball team, downed Wrightstown, 12-3, Tuesday behind the 6-hit pitching of Mahlik. Bill Manozzi was the loser.

Three of the Vikings' 13 hits were homers — by Larson, Lang and Tantzlaiff.

Car Slams Into Store

Appleton Man Driver In High Speed Crash In Town of DePere

Green Bay — Passengers told police the car that crashed into the L. N. Jensen store in the town of DePere about 10:40 Tuesday night was traveling from 90 to 100 miles an hour before the accident.

Kenneth W. Thyron, 21, 1125 W. Grant street, Appleton, the driver, lost control of the car on a curve on Brown County Trunk NN. It cut across an intersecting road and flew 90 feet through the air before slamming into the store, rolling over and burning.

Thyron, who was held in the county jail after the accident, pending appearance in municipal court, suffered a hand injury.

Two of his passengers, Jeanne Kolodzik, 15, town of Preble, and Judith Campbell, 15, Green Bay, were taken to Bellin Memorial Hospital. Miss Campbell suffered back and head injuries, but Miss Kolodzik's injuries were undetermined.

Another passenger, Gary Dilow, 17, Kingspoint, Tenn., received head injuries and bruises. The front of the store was demolished.

Brothers Tried on Bad Conduct Charges

One brother was cleared of a disorderly conduct charge and another fined $20 after a trial Tuesday before Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiege.

Donald L. Ward, 19, 2421 Monroe street, Neenah, was fined and Richard S. Ward, 21, route 1, Bonduel, was found not guilty. They were charged with creating a disturbance in Hortonville last Nov. 23.

Permit for Faith Lutheran Church Addition Issued

A permit was issued today for the $90,000 to $100,000 addition to Faith Lutheran church, 614 E. Alice street.

Plans filed with Building Inspector Walter Bogan show a 2-story addition, with 20 Sunday school classrooms and seating capacity for 200 more worshippers.

Other permits went to: R. W. Shepherd, for remodeling the residence at 926 E. College avenue, to cost about $150. Francis DeGroot, for remodeling the residence at 1911 S. Bouten street, to cost about $800.

Bertha Renner, for razing a porch and rebuilding it at 319 S. Bouten street, to cost $150. Sylvester Boehme, for remodeling the residence at 1042 W. Hawes avenue, to cost $1,500.

Zingsheim is the first Democrat to take out papers for any office for the September primary.

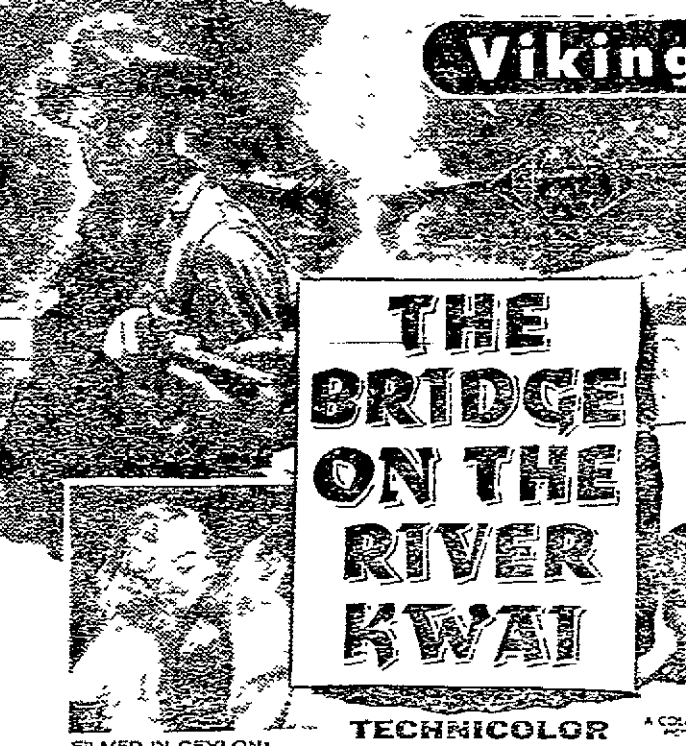

Clerk of Courts Sidney M. Shannon, 1019 N. Owassa street, also has taken out his papers for the Republican nomination for the office he now holds.

Zingsheim, 33, lives at 907 W. Lorain street. He has been an Appleton resident for about two years and has never sought political office before. He is a member of the county Democratic organization. The assembly seat was vacated by the death of Fred H. Frank last summer. Two Republicans have taken out nomination papers for the office. Shannon has been clerk of courts since 1923 and is running for his 16th term.

Engel Files Protest Over Lack of Answers

Appleton Doctor Explains Why National Medical Group Opposes Water Fluoridation

Joseph J. Engel, anti-fluoridationist, Tuesday protested to city hall lack of action on various letters he has written on what he calls the dangers of fluoridation.

"One of my letters," writes Engel, "was referred to the health department and I received no reply. Another letter was referred to the water department and I received no reply."

Engel also said his March 19 letter, the last one, was not read at the council meeting even though he received a letter from City Clerk Elden Broehm telling him it had been read.

Broehm commonly capsules long letters when he introduces them at council meetings. The procedure has never been questioned before, since the letters are referred to council committees which then study them and make recommendations.

Doctor Explains

In Monday's letter, Engel reports, the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons April 12 during its San Francisco convention "condemned fluoridation."

Dr. Paul Cunningham, 320 E. Glendale avenue, a delegate to the convention, said today the convention specifically declined to name fluoridation in the resolution to which Engel refers.

The doctor said the association is opposed to fluoridation, but not from a medical view. It is opposed, he said, from the philosophic view.

AAPS was formed about 20 years ago, he explained, to fight government controls and socialism in the medical profession. Fluoridation of water supplies is regarded as mass medication, or socialism, he said.

The American Medical association, he added, could not undertake such political work because, under its charter, it would lose its tax-exempt status.

Resolution Quoted

The resolution quoted use of the water supply as a vehicle for drugs. It reads:

"Whereas, the right to determine what shall be done to one's own body is fundamental; and whereas, water is necessary for life; and whereas, many people are dependent on public supplies for water; Therefore, be it resolved, that the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons assembled in San Francisco, Calif., this 12th day of April, 1958, condemns the addition of any substance to public water supplies for the purpose of affecting the bodies or the bodies."

Hurt as Car Is Hit, Knocked Into Pole

Robert G. Meyers, 30, 2261 W. Wisconsin avenue, was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital by Lindy's ambulance early this morning after his car was hit by another at N. Summit and W. Brewster streets.

Meyers' car was knocked against a utility pole when it was struck by a car driven by Elden Rohm, 20, 334 W. Brewster, police said.

Meyers received back and arm injuries, none serious. Meyers was southbound on N. Summit, Rohm westbound on W. Brewster, police said.

Boy Missing

Willi Wenske, 900 E. Winnebago street, told police Tuesday that his 16-year-old son, Klaus, has been missing since Monday.

He described the boy as blond, 5-foot 8-inches tall and weighing about 145 pounds.

College Stunts

That Spring Madness Means It's Prom King Election Time

The blare of bands at mid-night can be heard on the Lawrence college campus this week, as undergraduates indulge in the traditional spring madness that surrounds prom king elections.

Two candidates have tossed their hats into the ring, and their names now appear on every campus tree.

Contending for the privilege of ruling over the spring prom on Saturday evening are James Fetterly, Milwaukee, who has assumed the role of Diamond Jim, a nightclub - operating sport, and Carroll Gonzo, Manitowoc, who is putting his tenor voice to frequent use as 'The Student Prince.'

Gonzo partisans will demonstrate on Wednesday evening with a torchlight parade to the river bank where a talent show will be held, amid decorations of Old Heidelberg. At 11 o'clock Thursday morning they will again stage a stunt in front of Memorial union, culminating with water skiers on the river. A

A Book of Eulogies for Sen. Joseph McCarthy, reprinted from the Congressional Record, was presented to Ripon Mayor John H. Wilson, right, by Mrs. McCarthy in ceremonies Tuesday afternoon. The rites took place at the little white schoolhouse in Ripon, GOP birthplace shrine. Looking on is Merrill Fee, center, executive secretary of the Ripon Chamber of Commerce. The volume and a picture of the late senator, also presented Tuesday, will be on display at the shrine. (Ripon Commonwealth-Press Photo)

'Better Buy Now'

Sales Figures Indicate Success of Promotion

Reports from 39 participating dealers show sales increases in all but three divisions of the major appliance field during the first five days of "Best Appliance Values - Better Buy Now."

Promotion organizers and dealers throughout the Fox Cities today called the first half of the 10-day appliance sales event a "tremendous success." The sale, which began May 8, will conclude at the close of store hours Saturday night.

Success of the event is evident when sales figures for the check period prior to May 8 are compared with sales since the promotion moved under-

Food Freezers

Food freezers, for instance, went from one sale during the check period to 11 sales during the promotion. In other divisions, refrigerators went from 33 to 41; washers, 45 to 70; dryers, 21 to 38, combination washers and dryers, 2 to 10; ranges, 36 to 41, water heaters 15 to 21, and television sets, 23 to 27.

One dishwasher was sold during the check period and one has been sold since the sale. Air conditioners are down by two, since six were sold before the promotion and four since the sale started. Two ironers were sold in the check period and none have been sold by participating dealers since May 8.

'Mystery Caller'

Meanwhile, the Fox Cities "mystery caller" gave away ten more bags of merchandise Tuesday in the "Better Buy Now" telephone contest.

Tuesday's winners were: Mrs. Lloyd Ackmann, 912 W. Menasha street; Mrs. R. E. Kuyi lives in the lower flat and Childs, 316 E. McKinley street; Clyde Missing in the upper.

Five Will be Newcomers to College Faculty

Changes Announced For September by Dr. Douglas Knight

Five newcomers will be added to the faculty list of Lawrence college when school convenes in September, according to announcement by President Douglas M. Knight.

Two members of the language department will be on leave of absence for advanced study; consequently their replacements will be temporary.

Replacing Warren Caryl in French and German will be Marcel N. Muller, presently at the University of Wisconsin. For the second semester, while Professor John McMahon is away, it is hoped that Mrs. Tatjana Fabien-Lanko, wife of one-time Lawrence exchange student Bernhard Fabien, will be able to come from Germany. Details of her transportation have not yet been arranged, President Knight said.

Other appointments are Dr. Thomas E. Wenzlau as associate professor of economics, Lawrence alumnus Richard W. Zuehlke as instructor in chemistry, and Dr. Majmır Povolny as assistant professor of government. Dr. Povolny is teaching part time at Lawrence this year, commuting from Chicago. He offers a course in Russian history on Thursday afternoons.

Mrs. Fabien-Lanko lives in Marburg, Germany, where her husband is connected with the university library. She holds a doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Marburg, with a specialty in German drama and the literature of the pre-Gothic era. Since Russian is her second mother tongue (she is the daughter of a Russian emigrant to Germany), her doctor's dissertation was on German-Prussian literary relationships, which she received cum laude. For a year she was on the faculty of the Royal Holloway college of the University of London, and now is on the faculty of a gymnasium in Frankenberg, about 20 miles from Marburg. She passed her teacher's training examination with highest honors.

Wallace W. Barr has resigned from the Appleton police department effective Friday. Barr said he had been named president of Arc, Inc., 725 W. Glendale avenue, a materials-handling equipment firm. Barr, 29, lives at 300 W. Taylor street. He has been with the police force as a patrolman since Sept. 1, 1957. His resignation leaves the force six men short. (Post-Crescent Photo)

22nd Annual Executives Meeting Opens

More Than 260 From Industry Will be at 2-Day Institute Talks

More than 260 paper industry executives, largest group in history, will arrive in Appleton Thursday for the 22nd annual executives conference at the Institute of Paper Chemistry.

Thursday morning the executives will tour the Institute's facilities, including the newly built and building south research building (housing the Sulphite Pulp Manufacturers Research league), the central research building and the court addition.

During their inspection tours the executives will be guided by some of the 263 persons on the Institute staff. The Institute's buildings now cover about 165,000 square feet and 50 graduate students and one resident fellow are studying at the research center.

After a luncheon at River-view Country club, the executives will hear Institute staff members present a discussion of the origin and application of research ideas, taken from the Institute's own research program.

Russian Activities

A discussion of Russian scientific and educational programs in relation to the pulp and paper industry will wind up the afternoon session.

After an evening dinner at the North Shore Golf club, the executives will hear an address on the "Next 100 Years" by Dr. Harrison S. Brown, scientist, educator and author from the California Institute of Technology.

Friday the executives will hear Institute President John Strange's annual report on the last year and Institute plans for the coming year.

Preceding the Thursday sessions, the Institute's board of trustees will hold its regular quarterly meeting.

Before Strange's report, students will present a session on their experiences in graduate study at the Institute.

Although the conference ends after a luncheon at River-view Country club Friday, Institute staff members will be available for conferences with executives Friday and Saturday.

Restraining Influence

Grocery Prices Not to Blame for Cost Index Rise, Association Claims

Grocery prices did not cause the rise in the overall cost of living index in the 54 months through February, but rather exerted a restraining influence, Grocery Manufacturers of America, Inc., maintain.

Major causes of the index increase, the group says, are rising costs of such items as water rates, medical and dental fees, hospital charges, rents, public transportation, auto and television repairs, dry cleaning, haircuts and permanent waves.

"If (instead of remaining stable) grocery store food prices had moved up as much as the average of all other items in the cost of living index over this period, then that overall index would have risen by 9 per cent instead of the 7 per cent by which it actually rose," the association contends.

Two Per Cent Rise

"Even taking into account the March, 1958, rise, this general perspective is still correct," the statement goes on. "The average of grocery store food prices in the last 54 years through March rose only about 2 per cent, compared with the general increase of 8 per cent in the overall index."

"Comparing the March, 1958 price levels with the base years of the government's cost of living index (1947-49), the same general comparison holds. Grocery store food prices (index 119.6) have risen considerably less over this 10-year period than the overall cost of living index (123.3). They have risen less than any major category in the index except apparel and 'reading-recreation'."

The grocery association maintains the generally declining rate of food industry profits partially has cushioned the impact of higher costs.

Net Profits

The report states average net profits of food manufacturers and distributors now are at a rate of about 3 cents of the consumer's food dollar—half the pre-war rate of around 6 cents and below the 1946 rate of 5 cents.

Fresh fruit and vegetable prices are war-pushed the grocery store index up in recent months, the report states. However, retail prices of canned and frozen produce is about the same as last year, it goes on.

A secondary factor in the food index rise was the price of fresh meat, another perishable product, which went up about 2 per cent. The natural supply factor was the controlling influence here, the report said.

Overload Costs Trucker $229

Joe Horn, Jr., Forfeits Bond On Two Charges

A rural Kaukauna trucker forfeited bond of $229.20 in municipal court Tuesday on two charges of overloading. Joe Horn, Jr., 32, route 1, Kaukauna, was arrested by state police April 14 at highways 41 and 47.

He was charged with exceeding his license by 1,669 pounds and having an axle overload of 2,900 pounds.

In other traffic cases, Clarence F. Giesen, 38, 316 First street, Menasha, was fined $35 after he was found guilty of failing to yield the right-of-way to an oncoming motorist at an intersection. He was arrested April 5 at W. Spencer road and highway 41.

Eight drivers paid fines and were assessed three points each against their driving record on speeding charges. They are:

Francis E. Gue, 23, 2141 St. John street, New London, fined $20.

Bernard L. Gagg, 28, route 2, Hortonville, fined $15.

William J. Huntley, 24, 121 N. Water street, New London, fined $20.

Erna K. Mar, 42, Box 45, Sugar Bush, fined $15.

Simon B. ... on 46 route 3 New London, fined $20.

Robert C. Pastel, 28, Manawa, fined $15.

Harold F. Radloff, 38, Ogdensburg, fined $15.

32 Years Late, But Yule Card Finally Arrives

Christmas greetings mailed Dec. 20, 1926, finally have caught up with Miss Marie Biese, 726 1/2 W. College avenue.

The card was sent by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hoehne from Kaukauna to Evanston, Ill., where Miss Biese formerly resided. However, she didn't live there when the greeting arrived.

Where it lay or why the 32-year delay still is unanswered, but the Evanston post office sent the card May 9 to the Kaukauna post office, with the explanation, "The addressee does not reside there any more and we are unable to locate her. Kindly try to effect delivery at the return address."

au, forfeited $23.95, six points.

Anna Mae Long, 40, 302 E. Beacon avenue, New London, forfeited $28.95, six points.

Marlyn D. Deizer, 23, 107 E. Beacon avenue, New London, fined $25, six points.

James B. Wideman, 22, 2174 Kaukauna street, Menasha, fined $25, six points.

In other traffic cases:

Harold Bessette, 16, 917 Seventh street, had his driver's license revoked for 30 days and was ordered to pay court costs on a speeding charge.

Mary C. Brooks, Milwaukee was fined $15, three points, illegal U-turn.

Harry Boatman, 67, route 3, Pewaukee, forfeited $13.50, three points, passing on a curve.

Man Pleads Innocent Of Drunken Driving

Russell A. Lemke, 30, route 1, Hortonville, pleaded innocent of drunken driving when arraigned Tuesday in municipal court. He posted $141.95 bond and trial was set for June 30.

Waupun Inmate Denies Attempting To Hold Up Store

A prisoner at Waupun state prison pleaded innocent of attempted robbery charges when he was brought from prison to municipal court Tuesday for a preliminary hearing.

Speaker Asks Moderation in Water Changes

Pasek Says Public
Should be Informed
About Problems

Moderation in any changes in Wisconsin water laws so as to serve the best interests of the

Pasek
ton Rotarians

Recommendations for possible changes in the water law are expected to be made to the 1959 legislature by the legislative council's study committee. Pasek said. He asked the general public to inform itself about water problems confronting Wisconsin social and economic life so its expressions to elected representatives will bring about changes to benefit the greatest number of people, or the changes might become "most damaging to all of us."

"We have developed a social and economic structure on a set of water laws we now possess. I don't believe Wisconsin can continue to progress if there are radical changes to these laws. Nature itself is no respecter of man-made laws. The law as it now stands has created mighty agricultural, industrial, business and recreational structures that must endure. We must be vigilant about the stake we all have in this problem."

Two Factors
Pasek discussed the two basic factors of Wisconsin water laws, the doctrine of riparian rights and the use of underground waters (wells and springs.) Riparian rights provide that any property owner along a stream may use the water at his discretion so long as he returns it to the stream in substantially the same quantity and quality as he found it. Underground water rights are based on the contention that a man could pump water from his well and even waste it with no regard to effects on his neighbors' wells.

Problems arising from these two factors have brought about discussion with remarks on the vital importance of water "one of our most precious resources" and its primary importance for domestic use.

He said water's importance to the economic life of a community or area can best be shown if one were to draw an imaginary line from the Fox Cities north, from the Fox Cities west to include Wisconsin Rapids. About a million and a half people live within the area of the imaginary lines. One million of these people are either directly or indirectly dependent on the pulp and paper industries for their livelihood, he asserted.

"But it isn't only the paper industry that needs water," he explained. "All forms of economic activity require it. The public's stake in this complex is so complete, the whole must be cared for with utmost vigilance."

Genes Showing May be Yours

BY JOSEPH PECK, M.D.

(Condensed from the book "All About Men," Copyright 1958, By Prentice-Hall, Inc.)

In my medical experience I never saw a girl whose feet showed any reluctance when the time came for her to step into the river of womanhood. It is the boy whose feet are reluctant, standing where the brook and the river meet.

A boy from 10 to 13 is something nobody but a mother could love. Half the time he even hates himself.

While a girl becomes more graceful and attractive, a boy grows more awkward and more conscious of his clumsiness. A fuzzy growth appears on his face. Whiskers, starting singly break, and, besides, he is not and in pairs, soon grow rapidly, curling as they grow.

Acne pimples sprout where whiskers don't; his nose gets big and his feet smelly. He becomes discouraged and careless, dressing even more slovenly than you thought possible.

Nature is using her invisible hypodermic to inject progressively stronger doses of male sex hormone into his veins, and his reactions are constantly swinging from desire for violent bodily contact with his fellows to a strange lassitude.

Facing the Facts

At this stage he obeys you because the pattern is hard to face. Whiskers, starting singly break, and, besides, he is not and in pairs, soon grow rapidly, curling as they grow.

when he can tell the old man to go to hell, and that is one of his sweetest dreams. His animosity toward his father grows as his sex develops, and they can never meet again on common ground until he has kids of his own.

By this time his mother is suspecting things, and she hounds the old man to talk to Junior. Father would rather fight a bull without a sword, and Junior probably wishes he would do so and get gored.

In this respect, a physician is better situated than most men. I well remember the Sunday morning I told the boys we were going to my office for a little talk. They exchanged knowing glances.

I reached for a book on obstetrics and started my lecture. My younger son politely walked over to look out the window, while the older blushed and squirmed. I icily inquired if I was boring them.

"Papa," my older son said, "we have known all about that as long as I can remember. Our first picture book was your old Gray's Anatomy, and we often hear you talking to patients over the phone."

"Let's go fishing and tell mother it took a long time to educate you," I said.

Let 'Em Work!

Teenage sons look upon fathers as trees that shed money. Provide them only with necessities and pay for their education if you can. Never give them a dime for fun unless they do something to earn it.

At this stage of a boy's development, the chief job of society is to find an outlet for his excessive energy. I'm glad that my boys were at this adolescent period before all those child labor laws went into effect. Child labor in sweat shops, of course, was a disgrace, but so is the fact that millions of young American men must live through summers wandering around listless and unproductive.

Years ago a bunch of old biddies, probably thwarted in their natural desire for motherhood, took over the children's bureau in Washington and sold a bill of goods that it was an antiquated notion to think that parents could raise their own offspring during the tender, twig-straightening years.

A whole new way of life was opened for career women who could not make a success of anything else, and parents were hounded to distraction by welfare workers, well-baby and well-child clinics, child guidance clinics, and God knows what else.

Your Day Is Coming

And yet, if your son was raised right, he will somehow worry through the tough period of adolescence. Now he is in the same fix as a half-grown dog. Everybody loved and wanted to cuddle him when he was a puppy, but now that he is big enough to knock over the goldfish bowl and your favorite golf trophy, he lands in the dog pound, or, at best, gets a swift kick in the stern.

Your offspring may be a trial to his family, school and community, but just remember that he was created in the image of his Maker. Comfort yourself with the thought that some day he may show some of the worthy characteristics he inherited.

Meanwhile, a lot of fathers of good reason. They are worried because their genes are beginning to show

Many Types of Benefactors Attach Names to Endowed Chairs

By Marguerite Schumann

According to a platitude of some antiquity, it is the state of war that makes strange bed-fellows. But sometimes they are still stranger in a state of peace.

There is no more peaceful and meditative pursuit, certainly, than endowing chairs in religion and philosophy. Yet consider the mixed bag of benefactors whose names are attached to professorships in contemplative fields at Lawrence college.

There was Eusebius Basingdale Garton, for one, whose very name sounds like something out of a legend, and who created a legend of his own as a toymaker in Sheboygan. Now, Sheboygan is an old-world sort of town where a legend has to be pretty stout to stand up to time.

There was Edgar Martel Beach, a small-town lawyer but big-time patriot; there was Robert Seney Ingraham, a paradox in the world of Methodist ministers, for he was conveyed on his professional rounds by a chauffeur-driven automobile the size and color of a hearse; there was Salem David Mann, who was so determined to lay up his treasures anonymously in heaven that not even a hometown address, much less a biography, can be dredged out of the college records.

E. B. Garton authored a line of Gartons that flourishes more numerous with each generation, and are still responsible for the fact that toys are a big industry in the Chair City.

Last of Families

The other three endowers of professorships were the last of their families. Lacking relatives, they subscribed to academic immortality.

It is hard to see what they had in common — a toymaker, a lawyer, a minister and Mr. X, the unknown quantity. Whatever their diverse patterns of thought, President Samuel Plantz led each man gently but firmly to the conclusion that he underwrote the Lawrence teaching program in his favorite field. The favorite field of all four appeared to be religion and allied subjects. That is why more than one-fifth of all endowed chairs available to the college lie in one department.

Edgar Martel Beach was first on the scene with his chair, for it was endowed in 1904, only two years before his death.

Beach was familiar with life on two frontiers. Ohio was largely wilderness when he was born there in 1839. Men still died in the conquest of the land, and Edgar Martel Beach's father was one of them. When Edgar was five, a tree fell on his father and killed him instantly. Things were rugged in Wisconsin, too, when Edgar moved west in 1854 and started school at Lawrence academy.

For four years he attended school in Appleton, but never obtained a degree. During that time, however, he became friends with the Charles O. Tichenor family, ultimately marrying daughter Cecelia, and becoming brother-in-law to the two Tichenor boys, Charles O., Lawrence '62, and Isaac Newton, '69, who both got master's degrees from Lawrence before reading law. One of the Charles O. Tichenors (there were three of them in successive generations, without any identifying Srs. or Jrs.) gave Lawrence its Tichenor prize in English literature, which is still awarded each June.

As for Beach, however, his health almost entirely gave way, he quit school, and spent several years worth of wandering in the western and southern states.

Finally he swapped the stock for a small planing-mill and started in as his own boss, manufacturing cigar boxes. From cigar boxes to boy's wagons wasn't much of a conversion—he just added four wheels to his basic box. Today the firm makes all sorts of wheeled toys and, in deference to the space age, came out a couple of years ago with a red disc for sliding called a "Flyin' Saucer."

Garton and some of his sons were vacationing on Chamber's island off Door county when word came that his wagon-factory had burned to the ground. Garton thrust out his jaw and announced, "We'll be shipping wagons in 90 days." And he was.

Didn't Like Name

Eusebius Basingdale Garton didn't much enjoy his name, so he felt he improved things considerably when he named his son Clarence Eusebius.

Clarence Eusebius, in his turn, had some reservations of his own, so he named Eusebius Clarence onto his offspring. The present generation is back to Eusebius Basingdale.

One of E. B. Garton's young short-tail relatives reports with a happy grin: "E. B. was a great Republican—he voted in every election for more than 40 years without having been naturalized!"

He was very generous in his family gifts, but had firm convictions on the subject of overspending. When one of his grandsons turned 18, Eusebius gave him a handsome present—a big Buick. The next year, when the same grandson was happily anticipating his nineteenth birthday, E. B. decided enough was enough. That year he gave a leather belt!

He showed the same ability at putting on the brakes the year he gave the watches. The first birthday boy received a fine gold watch, which easily cost three figures. The second birthday boy, equally beloved, was given a model which retailed at $6.98. The same informant has come up with a tale of a big box marked "books" which E. B. Garton ordered during prohibition. The box was dropped in the Sheboygan depot, and it is reported that the books leaked a very fine bouquet. It is strongly suspected that the latter (and maybe some of the rest) are the sort of legends that grow up around a strong-willed, colorful captain of industry. The relation they bear to the truth may be very slight indeed.

Staunch Methodist

For E. B. Garton was a staunch Methodist, and staunch in those days meant in matters of temperance, too. He was on the Lawrence board of trustees from 1913 until his death in 1931, when he was only a few months short of 90.

Robert Seney Ingraham was a rare bird in the Methodist clergy. He was a rich man. He was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., the year the Civil war ended, and was trained at Adelphi academy in Brooklyn, took a B.A. and M.A. from Wesleyan, and did his theological work at Yale and Garrett Biblical institute. He joined the Wisconsin conference in 1895, first as a pastor, and later as district superintendent. He was delegate to several general conferences, and served on the national Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Board Queries Right-of-Way, Buying Habits

District Engineer Asked to Explain How State Determines Price

Outagamie county supervisors questioned Green Bay District Highway Engineer Leroy Empey Tuesday on Highway 41 right-of-way.

Empey was before the board to explain the relocation of 12 miles of the highway between Highway 10 and Kaukauna. However, he found himself cross-examined on how the state buys right-of-way for roads.

Appleton Eighteenth ward Supv. Sylvester Esler said he knew people near the intersection of Highways 10 and 41 who hadn't been approached by the state, but construction was starting in their area.

The properties involved are a motel, locker plant and veterinarian's office. Esler said three appraisers had been around, but no one told the owner anything about price and no one asked him how much it was worth.

Empey explained the state and county highway committee got as much information about a piece of property, especially when the price involved was likely to be high, before making any moves.

Appleton Thirteenth Ward Supv. Fred Krause, who heads the county highway committee, told Esler the appraisals were finished and the owners would be seen later this week.

The stretch involved is the traffic interchange, of the diamond type, at 10 and 41, termination point for the 4-lane of 41 from Neenah north to Highway 10. Work on interchanges along the highway is progressing with grading to start this summer.

Firemen's Pension Board Elects Mayor Chairman for Year

Mayor Clarence A. Mitchell has been elected chairman of the firemen's pension board. Merton A. Schulz, 802 W. # 'Peeping Tom' Shows Wife Her Boyfriend's a Phony Romeo

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN: After 15 years of what I thought was happily married life, my wife asked me for a divorce. She fell for the real estate agent who sold us our new house. He told her he belonged to a country club, that he had $100,000 in the bank and that he was separated from his wife. (All lies.)

Landers

I was shocked and hurt, but I didn't want to stand in her way. We couldn't afford separate addresses while he was waiting for his divorce so we remained together. She went out with him three nights a week. I got to thinking there was something phony about this bum because if he was so in love with my wife, what was he doing the other four nights? I tailed him last week and sure enough, he was visiting another woman. When I told my wife, she refused to believe it, so the next night I took her along. When she saw this man through the kitchen window, with a woman in his arms, she almost fainted. Now she's begging me to forget everything and take her back. She swears she'll never look at another man as long as she lives. Shall I trust her and take a chance?—D. L. T.

Give her another chance. After an experience like this she'll straighten out. Nothing you say can match the things she's probably been saying to herself. Don't rub it in.

She was a fool and nobody knows it better than she does.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I just found out how low a fellow can get. Please print this letter as a warning to other teenagers.

A guy I will call "Nick" invited me to a hay-ride. I accepted because the one I am really crazy about, (I will call him Ted), told me he had to go to his aunt's that weekend and wouldn't be in town.

Last night Ted phoned me and said there'd been a change of plans. He said he wasn't going to his aunt's after all, and he'd like to take me to the hay-ride. Instead of telling him I'd already accepted Nick, I said I'd go with him. Then I started to figure how to get out of the date with Nick.

I called Nick on the phone an hour later and said I got mixed up in my date book and couldn't go on the hay-ride with him because I had accepted Ted several weeks before. His reply was: "O.K., thanks a lot—Ted bet me two bucks he could do this. I lose all the way around."

Now I ask you, Mrs. Landers. Aren't some fellows skunks?—T.N.T.

DEAR T.N.T.: Yeah—they are. And so are some girls.

DEAR ANN: My daughter who is divorced and collects no alimony lives with me. She has three children, 13, 14 and 15. I have the entire responsibility of the children and they are a handful. When they want to stay out of school she says it's "all right with her."

She's going with a man twice her age who has been in the penitentiary and is now out on parole. She doesn't help me with the work, she sleeps until noon and comes and goes like a roomer.

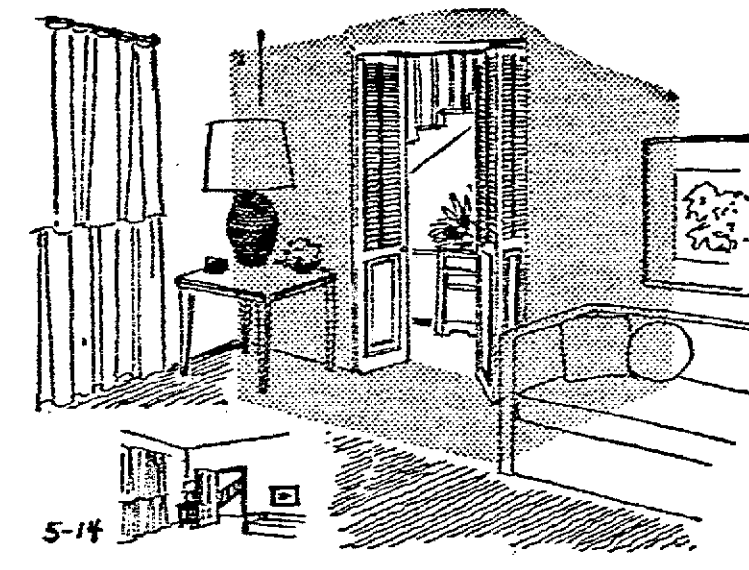

Several months ago I told her to get a job and help pay the bills or get out of the house. She lost her voice and "could not talk" for six weeks. When I ordered the doctor to put her in the hospital her voice "miraculously" returned the next day.

I'm a nervous wreck. I can't throw my grandchildren out on the street. What shall I do?—D.G.S.

You are wonderful to make a home for your grandchildren. I hope they appreciate it. To put up with their lazy, irresponsible mother is foolish. Tell her to go to work and help support the household or you'll take her to court, get custody of the children and have her thrown out. If she doesn't respond to this sort of talk, then go through with it.

D. has an idea that they might make it possible to arrange her furniture a much better way, but asks the question, "If I use the shutter doors, what about the windows? Must they have shutters on them, too, or will the doors look right without matching anything else?"

Doors with shutter type louvers needn't be matched by shutters on windows, Mrs. D. You'd be using them just as you would any other attractive door, and they're a good solution to the furniture arrangement problem your floor plan indicates. And something extra comes with the change from a plain door, too—the shutter doors will be plus decoration for the room.

Mrs. B. H. B. "My living room walls are knotty pine and the furniture is modern. Would nylon or dacron marquisette curtains in a tailored style look right on the two large picture windows? I'm afraid that they would be too dressy for the knotty pine. I have draperies now."

A fabric with more substance to it would have better effect, and in more ways than one. Marquisette is too sheer to offer much protection from sunlight or much privacy—you might face problems with it that you don't think of as long as you have draperies. A heavier, semi-sheer might do very well. It would filter in light without offering a clear view into the room from outside.

Beauty Reader Has Thin Lips, Full Face

By Marian Matthews

Question—I have thin lips and a full face. Do you think I should accent my lips and make them fuller or let them remain thin for contrast?

Answer—I suggest you draw a slightly heavier outline for your mouth but not a full shape. The latter might appear too rounded and this would not be as flattering with a round face as you desire. Experiment a little to achieve just the size lip-line you like. Use a becoming shade of lipstick.

Heavy Eyebrows Question—I have read that you should never tweeze eyebrows at the top. Mine are very heavy and I think I should weed them out above and below. What do you say?

Answer—Generally, it is a mistake to remove eyebrows above the natural arch but if you are certain this is right for you then try it. Be careful to tweeze out hairs in the direction in which they grow—otherwise they may be unruly and grow in a haphazard fashion. Before you remove or reshape brows, taints, but white or pearl gray at top, why not "pencil" them out with make-up to be certain this is what you should do. A print with matching red and cream stick in a shade to another color or two on a white match your complexion would or pale gray background. Curdo this. ## Savings, Loan Hit By Copycat Robber

Detroit—A lone gunman, apparently taking a lesson from another robber who twice preceded him, held up Detroit and Northern Savings and Loan association's Six Mile branch Monday and got away with $1,105.

Manager Carl L. Avery, 23, of Walley Lake, who handed over the money, said the robber was not the same man who got $4,000 March 3 and $8,500 April 11 because "that fellow is awaiting trial."

Avery said this gunman handed him a note demanding the cash, pocketed it and walked out.

"He didn't say a word to me," said Avery. "He didn't have to. These robberies are getting to be like clockwork around here."

Words often misused: The use of "success" to mean the person or thing that is successful is colloquial: as, "He is a success," and, "Her book is a success." Avoid this.

Synonyms: Banter (noun) badinage chaff, derision, irony, mockery

Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day.

Today's word: voracious: "It's very nice of you to help me put my roller skates on, Wilbert!"

Drop two letters from one defined word, and the remaining letters will spell out the second construction of the Panama Canal, defined word. For example, if we give the clues: Table delicacy—vessel, you will first think of SHRIMP. Then, by dropping two letters, you will have the word SHIP. Try these:

- Suspend—decorate.
- Reproof—follow.
- Associate—to parry.
- Nobleman—abstract.
- Besech—handle.
- Animal—neckpiece.
- Instigate—prophetic sign.
- Equine chairs—confuse.

Public Works Plan Offered For Canada

Multi-Million Dollar Program Directed To Halt Recession

Ottawa.—Prime Minister John Diefenbaker's government is expected to spell out for parliament today a multi-million dollar program of public works expansion and northward development aimed at bolstering Canada's sagging economy.

The opposition was also slated to have its say as Canada's 24th parliament opened its throne speech debate. Liberal leader Lester B. Pearson was expected to present a non-confidence motion — which has no chance of adoption — placing unemployment and other economic ills on the government's doorstep.

pledge to launch a public works program.

The projects include a railway to lead and zinc deposits on Great Slave lake, in the Northwest territories, roads in the territories and Yukon, a start on construction of the South Saskatchewan river dam at Outlook, Sask.

The program also included millions of dollars for harbors, late private and public, radio and television broadcasting. Other major moves promised for the current session include: A 6-week extension beyond next Thursday in the period for payment of special winter unemployment insurance benefits. A bill of rights restricted to matters within federal jurisdiction. A new federal agency to regulate

Some $300 million more in federal funds for housing loans. Diefenbaker's conservatives hold a record majority in the seats.

Spring's Here — Ruark's Own Favorite Crazy Time of Year

Things seem to be getting set, and are hurrying home to back to normal again. I was reading some headlines from one page — "Mink Thieves Hack Way Into Steel Vault." "Subway Love Killer's Plight Reunites Estranged Parents." "Injuns in New Pitch to Hold Off Surveyors." "Mercy With Bread Is Village Menu" and "Passersby Ignore Holdup Victim."

Now this is the kind of meaty stuff I can understand. I don't dig all this space talk, and summit arguments, and the fact that Malta wants to be alone in the Med without Britain's fleet to keep the phony souvenir trade going.

I ain't clewed out on the Russian peace offensive, or the possibility of having a Boy Scout troop composed entirely of guided missilemen. I came up in the ex-murder, "I - killed-party went off with the thief, Him-Because - I - Loved-Him" arm-in-arm, to take him to school, and I've been nervous lunch. Spring is here, and I in the service since they all may just nip out and strong-went top-lofty on me with this arm some sulphur and molasses-outer-space and pure-thoughts-es myself.

Now anybody in his right mind, if he feels keenly enough about mink coats, will chop his Niagara Falls for so long that way into a steel vault to steal. This is man at his most under-standable level. You want all jokes about honeymoon cou-tah mink to drape your dame ples, in, so you chop down a steel wall, because love laughs at since Benedict Arnold made locksmiths and stone walls do treason popular, but all of a not a prison make, especially sudden they pitch a tent and in Connecticut. Break out the make a big demonstration be-blowtorch, boys, spring has cause some state surveyors want to map their land in connection with a heap big power project.

Who's Looking? The lady who got knocked on the head with a meat market's $2,325 payroll in her kick—said funds being removed by the want to get on the Godfrey or footpads—naturally could not Sullivan TV shows so they can attract attention from passers-by say "Ugh" and "Wah" for that by. They were in a hurry to white man's dirty old wampum, succor a fallen horse or to lure They'll have to be coached, of a cat down from a tree, or to course, because they've been provide an excuse for missing saying "really, darling" and the 6:05 to Plainfield, if there "indubitably" since J. Paul is such a schedule.

Also, never get mixed up with strangers. Trouble. A/so, one final headline: "Mayor the cops are being busily trans-Bids Harriman Veto Bill to ferred to another precinct for Freeze Rail Taxes — City involvement in the policy rack-Faces Loss of $1.6 Million."

Man's Recipe

Pearson Ponders on Water While Mixing Bran Muffins

BY HAYDN S. PEARSON

This recipe takes a cup of water and started me thinking. Few of us appreciate that more than 70 per cent of the earth's surface is covered by water. All plant and animal life depends on the cell as a unit, and the protoplasm of most cells runs from 60 to 90 per cent water. Our bodies contain more than 75 per cent water.

Most substances contract when cooled, but as water freezes it expands. As I walk in the fields, meadows and hillsides these spring days, I enjoy watching and listening to the brooks. Many brooks are born in the highlands; small brooks tumble down the hillsides, merge with meadow brooks and creeks, and flow onward to a distant sea.

One of the interesting points about water is that the moisture supply of earth is constant. Huge amounts are transpired through leaves and grass; but somewhere rain is always falling. Certain areas may suffer droughts, but others get too much. Scientists say the amount of moisture on, in and around our planet is always constant.

Brain Muffins

Today's recipe is easy, and I like its chewiness. Use one cup all bran cereal, one cup water, one fourth cup shortening melted, one egg beaten, one cup flour, three teaspoons baking powder, one half teaspoon salt, one half cup sugar, three fourths cup seedless raisins, soaked and drained.

Mix the bran and water. Let stand 10 minutes. Add shortening and mix. Add egg and mix. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into bran and mix all well. Add raisins. Mix and beat while you sing a couple stanzas of Just a Song at Twilight.

Fill greased muffin tins two thirds full. Bake at 425 degrees for 25 to 27 minutes or until done.

Bran Buttermilk Biscuits Used in Fruit Desserts

When warm weather beckons you outdoors, plan to serve this delicious dessert. It's a fruit shortcake made with bran buttermilk biscuits that take only 12 minutes to bake and add an unusual tangy flavor to the fruit.

Bran Buttermilk Biscuits
1 cup whole bran cereal
1 cup buttermilk
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1-3 cup shortening
Soak the cereal in buttermilk. Sift other dry ingredients together. Cut in shortening until mixture is like coarse cornmeal.

Add soaked cereal, stir until dough is well blended. Turn out to floured board and knead lightly. Roll or pat to 1/2-inch thickness and cut with floured cutter.

Bake on lightly greased pan in preheated hot oven about 12 minutes. If sweet milk is used instead of buttermilk, omit soda and increase baking powder to three teaspoons.

Soak Corned Beef For Best Results In Boiled Dinner

The secret of preparing the finest corned beef and cabbage lies in soaking the meat in water 30 to 45 minutes.

This takes out any excess saltiness of the meat. The addition of vinegar to the cooking water gives a rich, tangy flavor to the distinctive taste of the corned beef.

Here is one favorite recipe for preparation of this popular dish that is typical of the northeast section of the United States, but popular almost everywhere in the country.

Corned Beef Dinner

1 medium head cabbage, cut in eighths
6 carrots
6 potatoes
6 beets
2 tablespoons vinegar
butter

Wash the beef in cold water and soak 30 to 45 minutes. Drain.

Place meat in boiling water, add vinegar, cover and simmer 3 to 4 hours or until tender. Half an hour before serving add cabbage, carrots and potatoes. The beets are cooked separately.

When vegetables are tender, arrange on a large platter around the meat, which has been rubbed with the butter. Add beets and serve.

Salmon Casserole Hearty Main Dish

For a filling main dish serve Hearty Salmon Casserole. Combine drained cooked noodles, canned salmon broken into chunks and its liquid, condensed cream of celery soup and drained canned peas. Season to taste with onion salt.

This Tropical Treat. Bananas baked in honey and wine. is a specialty of Guatemala City, capital of one of Central America's most glamorous banana lands.

Travel Through Food

Native Recipes From Tropical Banana Lands

Ports of call of the world famous banana boats form a roster of romantic Latin names to stir the most blasé traveler's and food lover's imagination. The banana lands of Central and South America — Guatemala, Costa Rica, Honduras, Panama, Colombia and Ecuador — are distinctly different from each other, each thrilling in its own way and each holding many new food experiences.

Perhaps you can't take off for the glamorous tropics on a banana boat but you can bring bananas to your own dinner table, served in as many exciting Latin-American styles as there are banana ports.

In the gay and modern capital of Guatemala, a dessert featured at luxury hotels is Platanos con Dulce (bananas in sherry). It's a heavenly dish in which bananas, brushed with fresh lime juice, have been baked in a mixture of honey and wine.

Version of Omelet
Tortilla de Banana is a favorite dish at the traditional Sunday breakfasts at Colombia's capital city, Bogota, where architecture, food and dining habits have Spanish overtones. This tortilla is a version of the Spanish omelet which substitutes in its filling green-tipped bananas for the beans used in Spain.

Include on your culinary banana-boat itinerary the banana islands of the West Indies and you'll add still another category of tropical treats. Cuban marmalade, which combines bananas, fresh pineapple and fresh oranges, is typical of the way in which bananas are made the basis of heady sweets in many of the Caribbean islands.

The United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable association brings you these recipes for banana tropical treats from the banana lands of this continent and of the Caribbean islands.

Tortilla de Banana
2 tablespoons butter
2 teaspoons fresh lemon or lime juice
4 medium green-tipped bananas (not fully ripe)
6 eggs, separated
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
1/2 cup milk
Fresh parsley
Melt butter in a heavy 8-inch skillet. Add lemon or lime juice. Peel bananas slice and add. Cook slowly two minutes turning carefully. Set aside for later use.

Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add salt, black pepper and milk. Mix well. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Carefully fold into the egg-yolk mixture.

Turn into a buttered baking dish. Spoon the cooked bananas over the top. (They will sink into the mixture, but this is as it should be.) Bake in a preheated oven 45 minutes or until a pointed knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Garnish with fresh parsley.

To serve cut into squares. Serve with crisp bacon or ham. West Indies Marmalade
1 quart fresh pineapple
1 cup boiling water
1 cup sugar
1 quart diced oranges
1 cup fresh lime or lemon juice
1 quart sliced bananas

1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

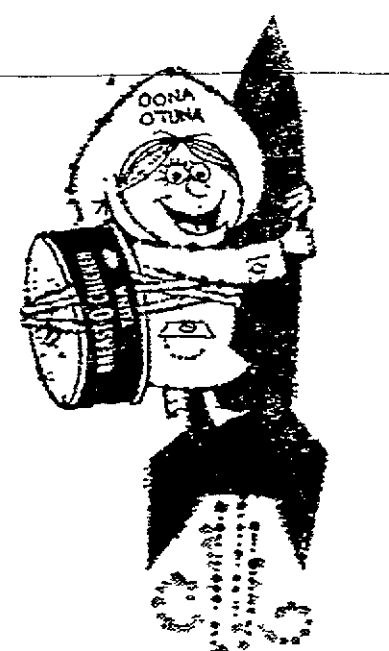

Cook pineapple in boiling water in a covered saucepan until tender, 15 minutes. Add sugar, diced oranges and fresh lime or lemon juice. Cook, uncovered, until mixture begins to thicken about one hour. Add bananas and cook until thick, 15 minutes. Add vanilla.

Bananas in Sherry
3 to 4 medium-sized firm ripe bananas
2 tablespoons fresh lemon or lime juice
1/2 cup honey
2 tablespoons cooking sherry or 1/2 cup sherry or red wine
2 tablespoons butter

Peel bananas and cut in half lengthwise. Brush with lemon or lime juice. Place in buttered baking dish.

Mix honey with cooking sherry, or wine and pour over bananas. Dot with butter and bake in a preheated hot 400-degree oven 20 minutes.

Hospitals' Statistics Show Daily Functions

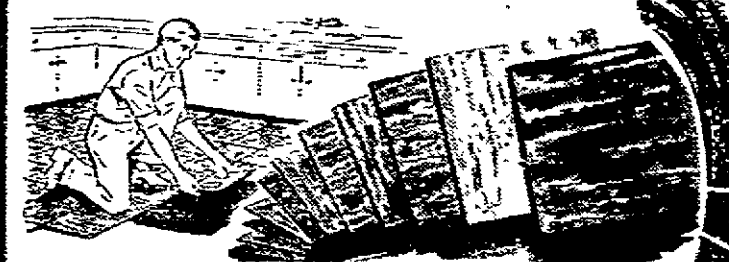

The statistics of a hospital, patiently recorded in thick ledgers, are vitally important for record keeping, comparative studies and histories. Though the figures conceal the emotions behind individual cases—the long, arduous hours of waiting for results, the anesthetic-tinged urgency of emergency operations, the sorrows, death, the joys of birth, the quiet thanksgiving after intricate laboratory tests were given.

3,567 surgical procedures were numbered and 316 out-patients received treatment. The figures also show 794 emergency treatments were given in the 200-bed hospital, while 62 patients were admitted for psychiatric care. Charity Care Often not heard about, the hospital last year gave $27,773 of free or partially-paid for services, while the number of employees increased from 275 in 1954 to 300 last year. Figures at Appleton Memorial extend from the opening day, Feb. 20, though the end of April and show 567 children and adults were admitted during the first few months of the institution's existence. A total of 3,431 patient days are recorded and the average patient stay was 64 days. In the maternity ward, 143 newborns received 672 patient days of newborn care, while the average infant stay was about 5 days. According to Robert Griffiths, hospital administrator, several employees have been added to the nursing and office staffs since the building opened.

Adventures in U. S. Revolution Told in New Book

A story of spying and fighting during the American Revolution is the topic of a new book added this week to the children's room of the Appleton public library. "Jackknife for a Penny" by Epstein will be among books available for circulation Saturday. Other additions are "Motorcycle Dog" by Barnum, "The Boy Who Got Mailed" by Brown, "The Cat Who Couldn't Purr" by Cameron, "Does Poppy Live Here?" by Gregor, "Swiss Holiday" by Allan, "The Boy and the River" by Bosco, "Valley of Defiance" by Carr, "Midshipman Cruise" by Corbett, "Two Swords for a Princess" by Green, "Tee Vee Humphrey" by Lewellen, "Bed-Knob and Broomstick" by Norton, "Judy's Surprising Day" by Scott, "The Saga of Andy Burnett" by White, "Bruce and Marcia, Woodsmen" by Alexander, "Mind Your Manners" by Allen, "Alec Majors" by Anderson, "The First Book of Supermarkets" by Bendick, "Who Lives in This House?" by Blough, "The Man Who Changed China" by Buck, "On Land and Water" by Buckley, "Chimney Corner Fairy Tales" by Hutchinson, and "The Pilgrims Knew" by Pine.

This Proposed Street Plan for town of Menasha land lying west of S. Oneida street and south of the city limits has been given the city planning commission for approval. The street at the extreme bottom is S. Oneida. It will have a service road to the west of it. The continuation of S. Memorial drive curves around the Valley Fair Shopping Center and requires a 100-foot right-of-way. A street extension map adopted some years ago by the city council provides only for the 100-foot right-of-way streets, creating the need for more detailed streets as time passes. This plan was drafted by McMahon Engineering company, Menasha, for the town after townspeople asked for it. (Post-Crescent Map)

Uncle Sam, Other Tax Collectors Taking Hands Out of Our Pockets

BY TOM HENSHAW

New York — "You've worked for me all year, Nephew; now you can go out and work for yourself."

That's the cheering word Uncle Sam had for all us surly taxpayers Monday, as he and his friends in more local governments quietly slipped their hands out of our pockets.

The occasion was National Tax Freedom holiday, the first day in 1958 on which the taxpayer can call his earned dollar his own.

Up until now, every dollar earned by the average taxpayer theoretically has gone into the yawning maws of government tills from the local town hall to the U. S. treasury.

10 Year Old Holiday
The observance of Tax Freedom day is 10 years old but few people are aware of it. There's little attendant fanfare. There's no big promotion. Why?

"The taxpayers can't afford it," says T. S. Burnett, president of the California Taxpayers' association, one of the day's tax-conscious sponsors.

National Tax Freedom holiday was originated in 1948 by Dallas L. Hostetter, executive director of the Florida State Retailers' association.

It is designed, says Hostetter, "to dramatize the overall tax burden which the average American is carrying."

"Instead of saying that taxes take about 36 cents out of each dollar the average American earns, we interpret this figure in terms of how many days out of a full year that would represent."

The sponsors think that having a "day" is much more graphic than just saying that if the federal budget alone were converted into 10 dollar bills and piled on top of each other the stack would be 421 miles high.

They feel it is much more dramatic than saying that if the total tax bite of all governments in the United States were cut by a billion dollars, taxpayers would be able to keep one extra day's pay.

Movable Holiday
Tax Freedom day is a movable holiday which, thus far, has proven to be movable largely in one direction—forward. It has reached the 133rd day now, more than one-third through the year.

The first Tax Freedom day was observed on April 27, 1942.

Last year the date was May 10. Had there been such a day in 1920, it would have been Feb. 28.

The date is figured by a simple mathematical formula.

Take the estimated total tax receipts of all governments in the United States ($125 billion). Divide that by the estimated personal income of all the people in the United States ($342.8 billion). Answer: 36.4 per cent.

Now take 36.4 per cent of the 365-day year. Answer: 133 days. The 133rd day of the year is May 13.

Thus far, the observance has had no visible effect upon the tax burden. But it's nice to know that congress sympathizes with its aims.

A few years ago, when the day fell on April 28, congress reared back and, amidst a column of whereases, solemnly resolved to give its official blessing to National Tax Freedom holiday.

Then the lawmakers went back to their more important, legislative chores—and National Tax Freedom holiday moved forward a couple more days the following year.

VFW Post Will Sponsor State Marble Tourney

Plans for the Wisconsin VFW marble tournament in Appleton Saturday have been completed by Harvey Pierre post.

At least 26 boys from throughout the state are expected to participate. Competition will be held at the VFW club on N. Richmond street at 12.45 in the afternoon. A banquet will be held at 7.30 in the evening for contestants, sponsors, post and auxiliary members.

The post has voted to sponsor a team in the Appleton recreation department softball league. The post will hold a teenage dance at the club from 8 o'clock to 11 o'clock at night May 23. Trophies for top AFROTIC students at Lawrence college will be presented by Francis Summich, community service chairman in honors day ceremonies at the college May 22. The post will honor students in each of the four years of training.

Delegates to an Eighth district meeting in Muskegon, May 18, are Walter Mueller, Ed Kies, Donald Manner, Oscar Van Ryzin, Ralph Sanders, Wilmer Wagner and Al Wyro.

Some Reservists Can Get Pension Under New Law

A new law permits a reservist, now drawing non-disability retirement pay for military service, to receive veterans administration compensation or pension if he waives an equal amount of retirement pay, according to Francis Heesakker, Outagamie county veterans' service officer.

Under previous laws, the waiver privilege was open to all retired members of the regular armed forces, but to reservists only if they were retired for physical disability, he stated.

The new law grants equal waiver privileges to all veterans receiving retirement pay for either regular or reserve service.

Duke Ellington for two years, Hayes, who plays a 5-string banjo and sings, is said to be one of the most recorded jazz vocalists in the country. While Miss Scott, also a vocalist, is the newest addition to the group and will release a new record album soon.

Leader Scobey played trumpet with several bands before forming his own unit in 1949. He has recorded several albums and is known as the producer of the "happy sound" in music.

The band appeared at the Cinderella ballroom two years ago.

Reorganization Strongly Supported by McElroy

Defense Secretary Wants More Economy, Better Coherence in His Department

BY JOSEPH ALSOP
 Washington — In a quiet talk predecessor, Charles E. Wilson, the other day, Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy made the best argument that has yet been heard for his highly controversial bill reorganizing his department. "I can't see anything ahead," he said, "but an increasing American defense effort, unless there is a pretty sharp and unexpected change in the world picture. The greatest economy, the greatest efficiency, will not keep costs from going up as the effort increases. So it's only common-sense to try to get 100 cents worth of fighting power for every dollar we lay out."

This is a sort of talk very different from the talk of the other great reorganizers of the Eisenhower administration has recruited from the ranks of big business. Under McElroy's ciency, as a brutal machine for increasing the brute power of the state, and he has realized to it is unsafe not to match in-creasing Soviet power with in-ming and even combative, creasing American power. about his bill as well as his "Today we may be about in balance," he says earnestly. "Modern weapons cross the "But I'm terribly concerned lines between the services," he about tomorrow. Really, there says. "Modern weapons leave are only two alternatives — in-creased effort on our part, or all. If we're going to have an decreased effort on the Sovi- efficient defense with modern weapons, we've got to have a "It's a contest between two different kinds of social organi- zation. one organized for the clear, uncomplicated authority welfare of the individual, and for over-all planning and pro- the other wholly organized to strengthen the state. Thank God, our system got there first, that marks off Neil McElroy so we've had a margin. But at least on their chosen ground, the challenge of the other sys- tem is now very serious. It's an interesting contest — rather it would be, if we weren't involved in it so com- pletely. Interesting is hardly the word when you're playing these last months; but it's still for keeps."

As these remarks suggest, there is a philosophical side to this large, solid, unpretentious man who left a big job and a comfortable life for a small first. I'll be learning for a long Washington apartment and the time yet."

McElroy came to government with no greater preparation than Humphrey or Wilson. Yet almost unbearable burden of the defense department. His humility thus added to his other qualities, the recruit from the grum, central facts that ers always refused to face. He has realized the Soviet system ulous results for his defense-re- the scene. (Copyright, 1958)

State Prison, Reformatory Overcrowded

Population of Institutions Climbing Rapidly

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison — Officials are crossing their fingers while they watch apprehensively an upward climb in the population of the two principal Wisconsin penal institutions for males, the state prison at Waupun and the state reformatory near Green Bay.

Reformatory population has passed the all-time peak. Prison population is climbing rapidly. In both instances crowding makes for difficulties and dangers in administration.

"It gets to be a fairly serious thing when we have prisoners sleeping on makeshift cots in halls and corridors and emergency dormitories," said Sanger B. Powers, head of the state corrections system.

He disclosed that at the prison a vacated twine factory space is now being remodeled to provide more group sleeping space for prisoners.

Speed Planning
One result of the rises in prison populations has been to speed planning for the construction of the new medium security prison near Waupun recently authorized by the state building commission.

If all goes well, according to Director Wilbur Schmidt, construction can begin early next year. Completion of that new institution would relieve population pressure at the main penitentiary at Waupun as well as at the reformatory.

Population at the reformatory recently passed the all-time peak of 836. Waupun now has 1,343 inmates, which is below the record of some 1,700 during the 1930's, but is comparatively high and is about 100 above the level of a year ago.

The population gains do not derive entirely from increased admissions, although there have been more sentences by the courts in recent months.

Fewer Paroled
As the labor market has tightened, officials have also tended to reduce the release of prisoners on parole. Employment opportunities on the outside is one of the key factors figuring in the rehabilitation of an inmate who is released by the parole board.

Members of the legislature's special committee to visit institutions toured both facilities last week, and were told about the population problems in detail.

The legislators were also informed the welfare administration does not plan any significant increases in the capacity of the reformatory or the prison. Future enlargement of facilities will be through the provision of separate and specialized institutions, it was said.

One alternative to the crowding problem at the institutions is the transfer of suitable men to farm and forestry camps. Such camps have already relieved a population problem, that would otherwise be critical. Nearly a quarter of the inmates of Waupun are now cared for in camps, as is a goodly proportion of the population of the reformatory.

Waupun inmates are not being cared for at a cost of about $118 a month. It takes about $149 a month currently to support a prisoner at the reformatory.

County Board Refuses Talk of Ambulances
Harold Linzmeyer, operator of Lindy's ambulance service, Tuesday complained to the county board that he had not received any calls from the county traffic police since last December.

Linzmeyer said he didn't want to monopolize the county's ambulance business, but he should get a share. He added that the county board had ordered that the nearest ambulance be called, and he could offer fast service.

The board, which has been arguing ambulances off and on for the last two years, declined to discuss the letter and ordered it filed.

In January the board rescinded a traffic police and radio committee order specifying calling Lindy's ambulance one month and Larry's ambulance the next. The board instructed its traffic department to call the nearest ambulance rather than splitting calls, as is done by the city police.

Man at Home at Time Of Accident Sentenced For Traffic Fatality
Detroit — A man who was asleep at home at the time of the accident has been sentenced to five years probation for manslaughter in a traffic crash that took two lives.

William Marshall, 33, of suburban River Rouge, loaned his car to Neil McClary, 18, of Lake Orion, Feb. 3 after they spent the day drinking. He then went to bed.

McClary struck a car driver by James Goldiron of Taylor township. Both died and a circuit court jury found Marshall guilty of manslaughter because he loaned the car to McClary while the youth was intoxicated.

Under probation, Marshall must: Not drink for five years, pay $1,275 to bury Goldiron, not drive for the first two years, drive only for business for the last three years and pay $15 weekly support to Goldiron's three children.

Youth Sentenced To Reformatory On Morals Charge
Gordon Kain, Jr., 19, 1413 N. Wayne street, has been sentenced to one to four years in the state reformatory at Green Bay in municipal court on a morals charge.

Kain admitted at his February trial having relations with a 14-year-old girl. He was ordered to the state diagnostic center by Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiede for examination as a sex deviate. The examination report was negative.

At the time of his arrest he was on parole from the Waupesa state school for boys for taking indecent liberties with a child.

West Finds It Hard to Smash Krupp Complex
BY JOHN BAUSMAN
Essen, Germany — The western allies who once charted the breakup of the vast Krupp empire are finding the 147-year-old dynasty as durable as the steel it produces.

Smashed to near ruin by allied bombers in World War II and postwar dismantling for reparations, the house of Krupp rose from the rubble to employ some 90,000 workers and do a business of nearly $800 million a year.

Now the western Big Three, pressed by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, have agreed to re-examine their trust-busting plans for Krupp and other German industrial barons.

Head of this huge iron, coal, steel complex in the heart of the Ruhr is quiet, reserved 50-year-old Alfred Krupp von Bohlen and Halbach, great-grandson of the company's founder.

Jailed as a war criminal in 1945, Krupp was released seven years ago and returned to his 200-room castle overlooking Essen, still one of Europe's richest men.

He holds the devotion of thousands of Ruhr families to whom working for Krupp is a way of life. From top management down to mill hands they have a loyalty to the firm that is known in Essen as the "Kruppianer spirit."

Pioneer in Benefits
This spirit has been fostered by such social benefits as a pension fund begun in 1858, a housing program launched in 1861 and a company hospital started in 1871.

Even before he got out of jail, Krupp's lieutenants had made a start at getting the various sectors of his empire back in operation. Observers credit this team spirit with being a key factor in the firm's overcoming formidable postwar obstacles.

Main hurdle was allied determination to break up the vast Krupp complex, which had supplied much of the tools for the German military machine in two world wars.

Krupp's properties, confiscated by the U. S. war crimes, were restored to him when his 12-year jail sentence was cut short in 1951. But under a pact, he signed with the Big Three in 1953, he was allowed direct control only over steel fabricating and engineering divisions. He agreed to dispose of rich mining properties and his Rheinhausen steel plant—third biggest producer in West Germany—within five years. This would have cut his company in half.

May Not Enforce Pact
The deadline slipped by this spring, but now the pact is expected to be enforced with leniency, if at all. The allies promised to think things over after Adenauer argued that Krupp and his fellow steel magnates were finding it hard to get buyers for their properties.

Krupp experts question the legality of the agreement—made between three sovereign nations and a private citizen of another. They also cite loopholes, such as no provision to prevent Krupp from selling the properties to his own son. The magnate wants to avoid any hassle, however, and hopes the allies will not hold him to the bargain, or at least will modify its terms.

To complete his comeback, Krupp plans to take over Bochumer Verein, big Ruhr company which makes the steel castings he has lacked since wartime bombers flattened one-third of his plants.

Purchase of Bochumer would make Krupp once again owner of steel making facilities extending from mine to finished product. It would restore the heart and balance of the Krupp empire.

The sum dial is a pocket-size computer introduced by the Fidelity Trust company of Pittsburgh. It figures, in less than 30 seconds, the amount of money a person should deposit periodically in saving for a specific goal. It even takes into consideration compound interest.

The operator sets the indicator at the amount of his savings goal, then locates on the dial the savings period to be used. Opposite that figure is the amount of the periodic deposit.

Crowding at the hospital has been notably reduced as a result of recent building construction there and several times during the last year the total population was slightly below the rated bed capacity of the institution, the report showed.

A study of the characteristics of the population last year showed that the most important age class, in numbers, is the 35-44 year old group, which composed nearly a quarter of the total of patients. About 12 per cent were between the ages of 15 and 24 years.

Fruit, Vegetable Prices Hike Produces 5-Year Record Mark

Washington—Record high prices for fruits and vegetables, reported by a 1 per cent increase of cotton and some feed grains in the level of prices paid by the general level of farm prices up another 1.14 per cent during the month ended April 15.

This increase came on top of a 4 per cent uptick in March. As a consequence, farm prices for goods and services used in production and family living.

Parity The Same. As a consequence, farm prices remained at the March level. Benson in his forecast of 87 per cent of parity. This that farm income in 1958 would compare with 82 per cent a top that of 1957 by from 5 to 10 per cent.

The April price movement, reported by the Federal Crop price report to be issued a month from now.

The increase in prices of fruits, vegetables, cotton and feed grains was offset in part by declines in prices for dairy products, eggs and poultry — declines which also were seasonal in character.

The report showed that corn prices jumped 12 cents a bushel or 12 per cent during the 4-week period. This development could well influence some livestock farmers to ease up somewhat on recent heavy feelings of hogs and cattle. Such a development would be reflected in increases in market supplies of hogs and cattle.

Youth's Diet Affects Growth Of Good Teeth

Teenage Eating Important, UW Researchers Say

A child's diet during the time his teeth are developing is probably very important to the health of the teeth, report biochemists at the University of Wisconsin. Wisconsin researchers found in the consumption of sugars. Once the teeth are developed, diet seems less important, the researchers say. They don't hold much hope for taking sugars out of the teenagers' diet. Youngsters need the sugars to provide energy.

quent decay-causing diet (high in sugars) did less damage than when the poor diet was given earlier. The rats' teeth had greatly matured by six weeks. This means age is an important factor in the control of dental caries, or decay.

For humans, the permanent teeth mature between the ages of 10 and 20. This is also the time when youth needs a tremendous amount of energy. And high-energy sources are found in the consumption of sugars. Once the teeth are developed, diet seems less important, the researchers say. They don't hold much hope for taking sugars out of the teenagers' diet. Youngsters need the sugars to provide energy.

Indications Reported Of Upturn in Housing

Washington—Signs of a housing upturn which may be sufficiently strong to lead us out of the current business recession were reported Tuesday by the National Association of Home Builders.

Because of the spurt, the Eisenhower administration asked congress for a $4 billion increase in the FHA's authority to insure housing loans. Speedup procedure was asked, and there were indications congress was disposed to act quickly. Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala), chairman of a senate banking subcommittee handling housing legislation, announced he and Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind) would introduce and sponsor a resolution for the increase.

Sen. Proxmire Meets His Match

Rep. John W. Byrnes of the Eighth district has achieved the distinction of being the only man so far to catch the peripatetic Sen. Proxmire off balance and deliver a body blow that has the senator screaming in frustrated rage. Rep. Byrnes has performed a real service for his party, not only because he has severely embarrassed the Democrats' No. 1 vote-attractor but because his example may inspire other Republicans to come out of their easy chairs and start slugging — something Wisconsin's Republicans have done precious little of in the last couple of years.

Rep. Byrnes' technique was deceptively simple. He took the bills that Sen. Proxmire has introduced since he went to Washington late last summer, and added up what the taxpayers would have to cough up if all those bills were to become law. The total came to more than $23 billions, or about one-third of the federal budget. Thus by the simple act of adding up some figures Rep. Byrnes has exposed dramatically the Proxmire technique of introducing legislation for the benefit of this group and that, without giving a thought to the total cost of such programs.

While the senator's cries of "Foul!" could be heard from Nantucket to Catalina, his defense was woefully weak. Accusing Byrnes of "misrepresentation," he said that the congressman's figure of $9.6 billions for the Proxmire tax reduction program was $5 billions too much since the senator has introduced two such programs and obviously only one could pass. In addition Sen. Proxmire claimed that on the cost of one of the bills (not identified) Byrnes is off by more than a billion dollars.

But if we accept the senator's correction of Byrnes' total, it is still $17 billions or more than one-fifth of the federal budget — more than one-third the amount budgeted for our entire military effort, or three times the amount budgeted for agriculture including price supports.

Just where does Sen. Proxmire think this money would come from? Since he has advocated tax reduction along with increased spending, obviously he does not expect the taxpayers to provide it. Thus unless he believes in Santa Claus or thinks our scientists shortly will be able to grow money on trees, it is clear that he is advocating that the federal government increase its annual deficit by at least $17 billions which gives substance to Byrnes' charge that the Proxmire program would result in "a runaway inflation followed by a depression that would not only curl our hair but snatch us bald as well."

The Byrnes-Proxmire debate is far more than just another squabble between politicians of rival parties, and it is more important than either of the two men involved. True, it has exposed the senator as the kind of wild, unthinking politician he is, but more important, it has put the spotlight on all those politicians — of which we have too many — who think they can keep fooling the people forever by promising something to every faction and hoping the voters will never add up the cost. The way this type thinks was revealed by Sen. Proxmire's protest that including tax reduction legislation in a list of spending items is "an extreme of misrepresentation." It never occurs to the Proxmire type of mind that when we reduce taxes without reducing expenditures by a like amount, someone has to make up the difference.

Sen. Proxmire has learned rather early in his Washington career that while a great many politicians have fooled a great many people on many occasions, Lincoln's dictum about trying to fool all the people all the time is still true — especially when the people are fortunate enough to have a representative like John Byrnes to put the facts straight.

Resurgent Germany

At the close of the war in 1945 Germany was militarily crushed, economically shattered, politically almost a vacuum. Occupation armies representing two widely different philosophies divided the nation. There was practically no history of successful democratic government; only the unpleasant memory of the ineffective Weimar Constitution, the economic collapse of the twenties, the nihilism of Hitler and the harvest of shame that followed. Anyone in 1945 predicting the emergence of Germany in something more than a decade as economically sound and politically stable would have been a candidate for an asylum.

And yet it has happened. Several scholars of the German nation since the war have tried to figure out why.

Certainly a great deal of the credit must go to Dr. Ludwig Erhard, minister for economic affairs for the last nine years and earlier economic adviser to the American military commander of the occupation. In a book dealing with his policies Dr. Erhard stresses that "democracy and a free economy are as logically linked as are dictatorship and state controls . . . First consideration must be given to the freedom of every citizen to live his life according to his financial circumstances, personal desires and values . . . Freedom for the consumer and freedom to work must be explicitly recognized as inviolable basic rights of every citizen."

Actually Herr Erhard has far more direct control over the German economy than has ever been permitted in the United States, through his powers over trusts and foreign commerce. But primarily his influence has been personal, according to Henry Wallich, author of Mainsprings of the German Revival, and his economic beliefs stress the use of his power to stimulate competition rather than to stifle it through laissez-faire inaction. He recognized inflation as one of the greatest dangers to the expanding German economy and stood for sound money policies in the face of socialist howls about oppression.

Dr. James Conant, formerly American high commissioner and later American ambassador to Germany, has put into book form a series of lectures entitled Germany and Freedom. He points out that some of the faults of the Weimar Constitution have been corrected, particularly the weakness of the executive and the power of fragmentary small parties. Now the leader can be given a vote of no confidence only if the Bundestag simultaneously elects a successor (a correction being attempted in politically incoherent France) and political parties must gain a respectable percentage of the vote in popular elections to get any Bundestag seats at all.

Dr. Conant also writes that the change in Europe is in part responsible for the different climate in Germany. In contrast to the isolation and hatred engendered after the Treaty of Versailles, a small but nevertheless important group of Europeans has been working constantly and consistently since 1945 for European unity. Robert Schuman of France, Henri Spaak of Belgium, Alcide de Gasperi of Italy have worked closely with Conrad Adenauer to bring about the common market, the coal and steel community and the atomic agreement, as well as cooperation within both NATO and the United Nations.

The split of East and West Germany is a long way from being solved and Dr. Conant urges patience. In a way the split serves to inspire leaders and citizens to greater effort, stability and a return to self-respect. Writes H. R. Trevor-Roper:

Of course, no constitution by itself can guarantee a country's health. . . . But if there is one fact about Germany we ought to emphasize in 1958, it is that the gloomy prophecies of 1945 have been proved wrong. However closely we look for symptoms of revived nationalism, racialism, militarism or despotism, we must admit that they simply are not there

The story of Germany since 1945 offers hope for every nation of the world.

Tennesseans Remember Senator Joe

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Will you please send me a clipping from your newspaper telling about the memorial services for America's greatest senator which were held there May 2nd, the first anniversary of the death of Sen. Joe McCarthy?

One hundred Memphis admirers of "Senator Joe" sent a wire to your mayor, to be read at the services, so we could have a little part in paying tribute to him.

If it may interest you to know that more than 12,000 Memphians signed the petition against his censure. We joined the multitudes who mourned his death.

To Joe McCarthy
No nobler men were ever by duty led;

No braver soldier ever faced the foe;
No heroes ever marched with firmer tread;
No souls with deeper courage e'er did glow.

When the future paints the picture,
And the angels set the time,
There will be a master artist
Who will paint a form divine
When with deft and hallowed fingers
He will write upon the scroll

Whitefish Bay Requires Garbage Disposers

From the Municipality magazine
An ordinance adopted by the Village of Whitefish Bay late last year requires the installation of a mechanical garbage disposer on a garbage incinerator in each new dwelling unit or in each altered or remodeled kitchen involving an expense in excess of $300. The ordinance sets forth definitions and specifications for garbage disposers and incinerators, and provides that the plumbing inspector may permit exemptions from the requirement upon finding that the cost of relocating or altering existing plumbing represents an undue hardship.

'You'll Make Better Time Without This Extra Wheel'

These Days

There Must be Some Way to End Legal Ring-Around-Rosie by Reds

BY GEORGE SOKOLSKY

(Copyright, 1958)

A major difficulty facing immigration and other authorities is to get out of the country those who came into it illegally, or those who having been admitted abused their stay. Most countries try behind the iron curtain, for instance, do not accept such expellees, which means that they remain in the United States because they have nowhere to go.

Sokolsky

One case now pending has attracted considerable attention. William Heikkila was admitted at New York for permanent residence on June 9, 1906. He registered as an alien on Dec. 12, 1940, admitting membership in the communist party. Although he had been in the United States since 1906, he first applied for naturalization at San Francisco on June 13, 1945. This application is still pending.

An effort was made on Jan. 4, 1948 to deport him as an alien member of the communist party. Heikkila appealed to courts; appeals rejected. He was given a deportation hearing by the Immigration and Naturalization Service which on Dec. 16, 1949, ordered him deported. The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals overruled prior court decisions and deportation hearings started all over again.

10 Years of Proceedings
Thereupon commenced lengthy proceedings in courts, in hearings before the Immigration Service, year by year lasting from 1948 to the present, for a period of 10 years.

The Heikkila case has been before the Supreme Court of the United States several times: Sept. 3, 1952, he filed an appeal with the United States Supreme Court; March 16, 1953, the Supreme Court dismissed his appeal; April 27, 1953, his petition for a rehearing denied by the United States Supreme Court. After going through other courts, he files a certiorari to United States Supreme Court; May 16, 1953, certiorari denied.

On May 17, 1953, Heikkila, having exhausted every judicial means, started all over again with the immigration authorities. He had had his day in court; he had lost. On Oct. 26, 1953, after a hearing, he was against ordered deported. Again the appeals started. It was as though there had never been any appeals before, as though his case had not gone all the way up to the United States Supreme Court and had been rejected. Heikkila or his lawyers have actually worked out a new gimmick in the law, namely, they go back to the starting point after each defeat and go right through the same judicial process up to the United States Supreme Court. This can go on forever or as long as the guy lives and has money to hire lawyers.

The only practical way for the immigration authorities to function is to seize the expellee the moment he is without judicial protection and literally give him the bum's rush. This was done in the cases of Michael Spinnella, Joseph Accardi and Giuseppe Gagliano. Spinnella, a proved racketeer, was ordered deported by Atty. Gen. McGranery.

On June 30, 1957, 7,493 orders for deportation had not been executed. The Immigration Service comments in its 1957 report:

The Big Question
". . . But the troublesome cases are those where deportation is delayed and delayed. One major problem is the refusal of countries to issue travel documents for deportation. More than half of the cases in the inactive category are for persons from countries in the communist orbit, for whom trav-

U.W. Degree for Zeidler Surprises Wyngaard

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — There is a fiction that reporters of politics are surprised at nothing, that they can take anything in their stride, however extraordinary, because they have seen it all before.

Yet this writer wants to be on the record as being astonished every once in a while about what happens on his beat — like the perfunctory announcement the other day by the University of Wisconsin board of regents that one of the practicing politicians of Wisconsin will get that coveted prize, an honorary degree, from that prestigious institution next month.

The beneficiary is Frank P. Zeidler, the mayor of Milwaukee for the last decade. Had this correspondent, or any other of some experience in Wisconsin affairs, been asked to guess a month ago who would be on the degree list of the university this year, Mr. Zeidler would have been ranked

The question must arise why these people want to stay in this country. A communist is committed morally and intellectually to the proposition that the United States is an imperialistic country, a war-monger, an exploiter of the worker and the enemy of the worker's paradise, the socialist fatherland. Such a person can only wish to remain here for one of two reasons: 1. Either he does not believe what he says is true but has a private and perhaps sinister reason for advocating what he does not believe; or, 2. He is sincerely and devotedly employed in the overthrow of our form of government and our social institutions by whatever manner he believes to be most available to him.

He should be given his day in court, but does that mean 10 years of continuous and repetitive administrative hearings and judicial trials? At a certain point, such conduct must be regarded as capricious and contemptuous. True, our sense of justice requires that a man exhaust his opportunity for appeal, but is not a decision by the United States Supreme Court the last resort? How many times can a man go ring-around-rosie?

New Chemical Weed Control Wins Approval

Development May Remove Need for Field Cultivation

BY JOHN E. POWERS
Outagamie County Agent
The United States department of agriculture through the Federal Food and Drug administration, has given approval for the use of Simazin for weed control.

Tests proved that Simazin will not contaminate feed crops used for livestock or for human consumption. Until this announcement, the University of Wisconsin recommended that Simazin be used only on non-food crops. Not since the advent of 2, 4-D has a weed killer aroused as much interest as Simazin.

There is good reason for this interest. On the basis of two years' results obtained at various test plots in the state, it proved to be a very promising material. Applied as a pre-emergence treatment in corn at the rates of one pound on sandy soils and two pounds on heavy soils, it controlled annual weeds all season long. Because of this excellent control, it was not necessary for any cultivation to control weeds.

Some control of quack grass was also obtained. Pigeon grass is quite satisfactorily controlled; however, deep rooted perennials such as thistles were not affected.

Cultivation Research
With the introduction of this new weed killer, the University of Wisconsin is conducting considerable research to determine the value of cultivation. If district delivered sermons on weeds can be chemically controlled, it is necessary to cultivate the crop? Results to date indicate that there is no danger of soil residual problem from the first and second applications during the year following treatment.

Heavier dosage rates, however, may present a residual problem. Research will provide the answer very shortly. The tolerance of many crops to Simazin needs to be more definitely established. It appears, however, that corn, potatoes, tomatoes and asparagus are a few of the crops which will tolerate this material.

The 2, 4-D pre-emergence treatment and now Simazin used the same way has changed the production of corn considerably. Farmers have come to realize that time spent cultivating and materials used in cultivating are both costly. With the use of chemicals the treatment is easy and effective.

Calumet Farms Complete Soil Saving Work

Chilton — Calumet county farmers enrolled in the soil conservation program have nearly completed strip cropping layouts for this season and are now working on waterways and tiling.

Claude Wilberscheid, Charlestown, marked out about 30 acres for strip cropping late in April.

Alphons Reiser, Charlestown, has tiled 1,000 feet of waterway this spring. Tiling has been laid to keep the waterway dry so that it will not be cut while being crossed with farm machinery.

Martin Van Daalwyk and Elmer Federwitz, both of Chilton town, have completed tiling layouts and will construct waterways later.

In a joint tiling operation John Apitz and Elmer Peters, Harrison, have installed over 6,000 feet of tile within the last week.

Ernst Markwardt and Jake Krutzig, New Holstein, have established strip cropping on their farms this spring, and Charles Gebhart, Charlestown, has begun work on diversion and terracing.

SCS Official Emphasizes Duty of Stewardship

Vern Geiger Reviews Purposes of Annual Observance of Soil Conservation Needs

Soil Stewardship week, this week, calls attention to the fact that man's stewardship of the land is a sacred responsibility. Vern Geiger of the U. S. Soil Conservation service said today.

Many clergymen in the Outagamie County Soil Conservation district delivered sermons on this topic on Soil Stewardship Sunday. Geiger went on to say, "Farmers of Wisconsin, generally, have done a fine job in keeping their soil on the hill from the first and second applications during the year following treatment. We have lost too much irreplaceable topsoil," the Soil Conservation Service representative said.

Professors O. R. Zeasman and Robert Muckenhirn of the University of Wisconsin in their "Soil Erosion Survey of Wisconsin," point out that because a goodly portion of the states land is level, no erosion has taken place on approximately one-third of our cropland. However, one-third has lost up to 5 inches of topsoil. The final third has lost over 5 inches or more than a plow depth. About one-fourth of a million acres is too badly eroded to be tilled again.

Evaluate Topsoil
The value of topsoil has been determined by field trials conducted throughout the state by the Soil Conservation service, and the Wisconsin agricultural experiment station.

On fields having an identical slope, soil type, and management, it was found that for every inch of topsoil lost there was a reduction in yield of three or more bushels of corn and small grain per acre.

"Where a plow depth of soil has been lost, the decrease in yield would amount to 15 bushels per acre," the SCS representative commented.

"By following a good conservation plan, farmers can hold soil losses to a minimum and their sons will not have to ask the question, 'Dad, here's the farm but where's the soil?'" the soil conservationist concluded.

Better Management Shows Up in Better Milk Production

7,640 Pound Average Represents All-Time Record for Wisconsin

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — How dairymen are harnessing science and technology to produce more milk from their cows than ever before is shown in the steady upward march of the dairy cow production averages of the state.

Last year Wisconsin farmers attained a new all-time high average of 7,640 pounds of milk for each cow in their herds. As the practice spreads, the state-federal crop reporting service has disclosed here.

The figure topped the 1956 average by nearly 300 pounds.

Just Beginning
Moreover, the production gains are "just beginning," said one experienced observer of Wisconsin dairy statistics. In some of the better districts of the state the current average yields are already above 8,500 pounds, and rising each year.

Some individual dairy farmers are now attaining yields of 15,000 pounds per cow, and some economists have predicted that the average production in Wisconsin dairying will ultimately reach 12,000 pounds.

Better feeding, breeding and care of animals is responsible for the steady increase in productivity of the milk cows.

Artificial insemination as a method to improve breeds, for example, has not yet involved more than a fraction of the total milking cows in the state. As the practice spreads, the production figures will improve at an accelerated pace.

The improvement in yield per cow is principally responsible for the steady rise in total milk production of the state.

New records have been established annually, without significant increases in cattle numbers. During the current spring season, for example, total output is again significantly above that of the same period last year, in contrast with the experience of dairymen of the country as a whole who are approximately keeping even with last year's production.

One-Eighth of Farmer Feeds City Person

USDA Calculates Urban Dweller Uses 1 1/2 Acres

The average city person is served by one-eighth of a farm worker the U. S. department of agriculture has calculated, on the basis of the present population and the number of farm workers.

The one-eighth of a farm worker cultivates about an acre and a half of land. On it he produces for his city consumer a little less than three bushels of wheat, 100 pounds of potatoes, about 230 pounds of vegetables and melons and about 200 pounds of fruits and berries. He milks one-eighth of a dairy cow, feeds one-sixth of a beef steer, half a hog, eight broiler chickens, half a turkey and two and a fifth laying hens.

In all, he provides his city friend with about 1,600 pounds of food each year.

On the financial side, farmers have invested about $1000 for each consumer. The one-eighth of a farmer receives about 40 per cent of what the consumer pays for food, or about $121 a year. From non-food items and exports he collects another $60.

He pays out about two-thirds of this for feed, fertilizer, machinery, interest, taxes, etc., leaving him around $65. In addition he raises about $18 worth of his own food and fuel, and collects about $3 per consumer in government payments.

A cow owned by Bert Weyenberg topped the April report of the Dairy Herd Improvement association with a test of 113 pounds of butterfat. Weyenberg had 75 per cent of his 20-head herd above the 40 pound mark.

Hietpas Dairy had two cows on the top of the DHIA list, one at 94 pounds and another at 88 pounds.

Other cows topping the list are owned by Robert Krohlow, 98 pounds; County farm and La Vern Wehrman, 92 pounds each; Robert Garvey, Chester Appleton and Arnold Volkman at 89 pounds each, and Robert Paltzer and Herman Stichtman, each at 88 pounds.

Len Voight and Sons had their 38-head herd 86.8 per cent above the 40 pound mark. Other herd results included Edward Rahmlow, 82.6 per cent of 23-head; Volkman, 78.3 per cent of 37-head; Stichtman, 77.7 per cent of 9-head; Oscar Miller No. 1, 75.7 per cent of 37-head; Paltzer, 74.1 per cent of 27-head; Leo Schampers, 73.9 per cent of 23-head; Ing Vegoe, 71.4 percent of 14-head and Darrell Bottrill, 69.2 per cent of 13-head.

They're Putting on Dog At Governor's Mansion

Princeton, N.J. — F. Morven, the governor's mansion, is putting on the dog.

Democratic Gov. Robert B. Meyner and his wife, Helen, recently acquired their third dog, a poodle called "Schatzi." Schatzi joins "Fluffy" another poodle, and "Buster," a Norwegian elkhound.

All three dogs are Democrats, said the first lady, but Schatzi isn't allowed the run of the mansion. "Not housebroken," she said.

STEP UP...

to the latest in 2-ROW CULTIVATING
IT'S EASY

One step and you're in the tractor seat. The Allis-Chalmers 200 Series 2-row cultivator has no bars, rods or ropes to block the way.

You can see better, up ahead. Front sweeps, front tractor wheels, the crop row — all fall into your natural line of vision. You ride relaxed... do better work... feel far fresher after a day in the field.

Roll-in, quick hitching saves get-ready time. Gangs roll into position on the gauge wheels — just like a rubber-tired wheelbarrow.

For the easiest tractor cultivating you've ever done, try the Allis-Chalmers 200 Series cultivator.

County Pastures Threatened by Yellow Rocket

Careful Treatment
Needed to Prevent Damage to Alfalfa

JOHN E. POWERS
Outagamie County Agricultural Agent

Yellow Rocket is rapidly becoming a serious threat to Outagamie county pastures. In recent years, this weed has increased to the point where many pastures have become heavily infested.

It is a particularly serious threat because it is very difficult to control without damaging the pasture. Yellow Rocket appears in hay fields and when alfalfa is present.

The 2, 4-D spray may harm the alfalfa if certain precautions are not observed.

The weed is easy to spot in hay fields at this time. It is likely to be the only green growth in the field. Look for clusters or rosettes of green leaves close to the ground. Each leaf of Yellow Rocket has a large terminal lobe so there should be no difficulty in identifying it.

If Yellow Rocket was present in the field last year, you can be sure it will be there again this year. The plant reproduces from seed only. Its bright yellow blossoms will be noticed early in May. This weed is usually spread in manure obtained from feeding hay containing the ripe seeds.

Spray Now

Now is the time to spray infested hay fields to control Yellow Rocket. Use 2, 4-D Amine or MCPA Amine at the rate of one-half pounds of acid equivalent per acre. Unless the spring-like weather has changed things, the Yellow Rocket will be showing green and the legume will be still dormant. Very little if any injury to legumes, will occur if treatment is made while the legumes are dormant. However, large percentage of the county severe injury will likely occur if treatment is delayed until alfalfa growth begins. The safest

Warden Service Is Dogs' Best Friend

Branchburg, N. J. — A dog's best friend in over 50 communities around here is the Contented Warden Service.

Started six years ago by David Condit and Michael Kresdowski who were fed up with the dog food business, Contented offers dog warden service at a fraction of the cost of retaining a full-time municipal dog catcher. And contented dogs have it soft.

They are kept until claimed by an owner or an interested dog lover and have free lodging and medical service while they wait.

treatment of the two chemicals is MCPA Amine.

Unless farmers begin to realize the serious threat of this weed, it won't be long before a large percentage of the county hay fields will become infested. It is sensible to control it before it becomes wide spread.

The County Agent Answers

Will simazin control quack grass?

Although simazin appears to be the answer to the majority of the weed problems, it cannot be expected to give good control of quack grass. This chemical will control annual grasses and broad leaved weeds very satisfactory. It is expected that simazin will become the most popular weed control treatment for corn. It appears that the weed control will be complete enough so that cultivation will not be required. Dalapon is the recommended chemical for quack grass.

What is the average fertilizer recommendation for gardens in Outagamie county?

The average soil in Outagamie county contains fairly satisfactory amounts of phosphorus and lime and is usually somewhat lacking in potassium and nitrogen. In most cases, five pounds of 10-10-10 per 100 square feet of garden area is the proper fertilizer treatment. Just as satisfactory would be three pounds of 5-20-20 per 100 square feet plus a good application of barnyard manure. It is always a good recommendation to add barnyard manure or some form of organic matter because these materials add greatly to the soil texture. Nitrogen is the key element for good gardens as this element promotes growth and green color. For more accurate recommendations, it is suggested that the soil be tested and recommendations be based on the analysis. Soil samples can be brought to the agricultural extension office for testing.

How can Iris Borer and Thrip on Gladiolus be controlled?

Thrips are probably one of the most abundant and destructive insects in the flower garden. They are very small black thin insects. The borer is often the cause of flowers not developing the kind of flowers that are desirable. The best control is to dust every 10 to 14 days with 5 per cent DDT. This should be done from now through the entire season.

How much spaghetti, macaroni or noodles will equal one cup of cooked?

When cooking macaroni and spaghetti, it will practically double in volume while egg noodles usually do not increase in volume. Thus, one cup of dry macaroni or spaghetti yields two cups cooked, while one cup dry egg noodles equals one cup cooked.
